Ohio Weekend Traffic Takes Lives of 18

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio recorded at least 18 traffic deaths this weekend and almost 20 per cent of them happened in one county—Trumbull.

The four Trumbull County fatalities occurred in separate accidents. It was the worst toll of any county in the state.

Only one multiple fatality traffic accident was reported in the Associated Press survey period from 6 p.m. Friday through midnight Sunday. It killed a Scioto County physician and his wife. They were involved in a two-car collision at Waverly.

Three members of the University of Dayton debate team were injured—two critically—and their coach was killed when their car and another collided head-on near Zanesville. They were returning from a debate meet at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh. Other Dayton team members were returning in another car.

In addition to the traffic fatalities, the state registered three accidental shooting deaths, a fire death and the strangling of a tot when her toy box lid fell on her neck.

The fatalities:

Friday Night
Clarence Smith, 48, Bridgeport, struck by a car on U.S. 40 in that Belmont County town as he walked from between two parked autos.

Saturday
James Edmonds, 31, Warren, when his car crashed into two utility poles near there.

Tom Remley, 15, Norwood, shot in the chest when both hammers of his double-barreled shotgun caught on a wire and triggered the weapon as he pulled it through a fence while hunting on a farm near Mason in Warren County.

William J. Phelps, 21, Germantown, when his car crashed into a building and then a utility pole along Ohio 747 at Port Union in Butler County.

Fowl Trick Played In Laundromat

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Duane Lambillotte weren't exactly tickled by all the feathers in their laundromat here.

And after taking one of his washers apart for cleaning and disinfecting, Lambillotte is wondering if he ought to put up a sign, "The only chicks allowed in here are housewives."

Seems he found his laundromat room smeared with blood and littered with feathers the other night.

Some uncouth soul had used one of the large washers to scald a chicken—which was then plucked on the spot.

More State Government Information Asked in Study

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has received several recommendations for administrative and legislative actions "to insure a fuller dissemination of information" on the state government.

The recommendations were made by a 24-member committee on public information comprised of state legislators, Cabinet officers and news media representatives. The committee said its study "clearly shows that generally the law, the regulations and practices of state governmental agencies, with respect to freedom of public information, are reasonable."

The committee's recommendations included those calling for legislation in next year's General Assembly to amend state laws to:

Require the state liquor director to compile (as he does now on his own) a quarterly list of liquor permit applications, showing application date and priority of consideration, and to require publication of such a list in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the applicant resides.

Allow radio and television representatives in proportionate numbers to attend executions at Ohio Penitentiary.

Require the highway director to give the governor confidential information which the director receives in qualifying a bidder on highway jobs.

Require the managing officer of each state mental or correctional institution to call upon the coroner to determine the cause of every death in the institution.

Make a designated administrative official responsible for reviewing, advising and assisting administrative agencies. Such help would include things pertaining to preparing and publishing annual reports, revising and drafting rules and regulations, and publishing continually revised agency

Burglar Is Killed By Small Town Cop

TROY, Ohio (AP)—A burglar was shot and killed Sunday by the police chief of nearby Covington, sheriff's deputies report.

The Miami County coroner's office ruled the death of Ralph R. Reuber, 31, of Dayton, justifiable homicide.

Police Chief Norman Miller shot Reuber in the eye as the latter was in the process of burglarizing Benner's Supermarket on the outskirts of Covington, deputies said.

Investigators said the police chief fired after Reuber tried to shoot him with a gun that turned out to be empty. Reuber found the gun in the store office.

Churchill May Be Out Of Bed on 86th Birthday

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill's doctors hope to get him out of his sickbed for the celebration of his 86th birthday Nov. 30.

Britain's World War II leader has been lying propped up in a special adjustable bed since last Tuesday when he stumbled in his bedroom and broke a small bone in his back.

Lady Churchill told newsmen Sunday night Sir Winston was "very much better," eating well and reading the newspapers.

Cubans Claim U.S. 'Puppets' Are Unmasked

Castro's Brother Speaks Angriily, but Rattles No Rockets

HAVANA (AP)—Cuban Armed Forces Minister Raul Castro says President Eisenhower's dispatch of U.S. warships to the Caribbean is criminal and "unmasks United States' puppets in Central America."

But the younger brother of Prime Minister Fidel Castro in an angry speech Sunday refrained from rattling Soviet rockets as a threat to the United States. The omission was in line with a trend noted recently in speeches by other top figures in the Castro regime.

The softer tone lent weight to speculation that Moscow had nudged Castro to take the Soviet Union out of the Cuban revolution's frontlines to preserve other Soviet interests in Latin America. Premier Khrushchev himself said recently his rocket offer to defend Cuba was "symbolic."

The younger Castro told his audience of petroleum workers that Eisenhower's order of last week, made in response to requests by Guatemala and Nicaragua, represented "A warning by Yankee imperialism to all the peoples of Latin America that it is not going to permit Cuban-style revolutions."

Castro said Cuba supports countries in revolt in Latin America but he denied that Cuba had given any direct military assistance to rebels in the recent uprisings in Guatemala and Nicaragua.

"Our best help to them," he said, "is to preserve the revolution here, which will be a great contribution to the final liberation of all our brothers of Latin America."

Castro's speech came only hours after the shooting of a young U.S. Embassy clerk by a Cuban army captain during a scuffle outside a Havana nightclub.

Wayne Henderson, 22, of Pasadena, Calif., a communications clerk in the embassy, was seriously wounded Saturday night.

Henderson's condition was described as satisfactory after a 2½-hour operation for the removal of the bullet, which entered his body near the hip.

Cuban police said the shooting by Capt. Jorge Robreno was accidental.

They gave this account: Henderson went nightclubbing with another American, Marine Cpl. William E. Tompkins, 20, of Warren, Ohio. He presented a $5 American bill to pay the check but the cashier refused to accept it on the suspicion it might be counterfeit.

Much counterfeit American money has been circulating in this country. The cashier demanded pesos. Henderson refused, calling pesos "communist money."

The management summoned an off-duty policeman, who asked Henderson to go with him to the police station. Outside the nightclub the two Americans began scuffling with the policeman. Robreno, who had followed the trio out, drew his .45 pistol in an attempt to halt the fight and it went off accidentally.

Although the Cuban police version attached no blame to Robreno he is being held in La Cabana military prison.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said Henderson had resorted to violence only after being pushed by the Cuban policeman and then was shot by another Cuban who walked up with a drawn pistol.

The spokesman said if there was any formal protest over the incident, it would have to come from Washington.

Fire Destroys Barn at Orient

A barn at the Orient State Hospital was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, State Highway Patrol Post 65 reported today.

The cause was not immediately determined. Fire units from Harrisburg and Jackson Twp. of Franklin County answered the call.

Kennedy Studies Process For Taking over Controls

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The big task of shifting government control from the Eisenhower administration to the new Democratic regime gets President-elect John F. Kennedy's personal attention today.

Kennedy arranged to confer most of the day at his Atlantic shore home with Clark Clifford, his chief liaison man with the outgoing Republicans.

Clifford, who served as special counsel to President Harry S. Truman, was picked by Kennedy shortly after his nomination last July to make a study of the problems of transition from one administration to another.

Clifford had the study well under way when Kennedy won the Nov. 8 election. Since then, Clifford has conferred twice with President Eisenhower's chief aide, Wilton B. Parsons.

These conferences and the Kennedy-Clifford talks today will be climaxed soon by a meeting of the president-elect and Eisenhower for a top level discussion of the change-over.

Sitting in with Kennedy and Clifford for at least part of the talks will be Prof. Richard Neustadt of Columbia University. Neustadt is a specialist on the problems of government transition.

From his two advisers Kennedy will get a list of some 150 top positions for which he will be choosing appointees between now and his inauguration Jan. 20, or of lesser jobs also must be filled.

Over the weekend Kennedy divided his time between recreation and conferences dealing with reorganization of the Defense Department and discussion of the tense situation in the Caribbean area.

His house guests were two Democratic senators, Stuart Symington of Missouri and George Smathers of Florida.

immediately thereafter. Hundreds Symington, secretary of the Air Force in the Truman administration, is head of a Kennedy study committee on Pentagon reorganization. Mentioned frequently as a Kennedy choice for secretary of defense, Symington said he had told the president-elect he feels he can be of more help to the new administration by staying in the Senate.

Johnson Tells West Allies Isolation Voice Stilled in U.S.

PARIS (AP)—Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson today told America's Western allies the United States election in no sense was "a repudiation of President Eisenhower's support for the instruments of mutual strength in Western Europe."

Speaking at the opening of the annual parliamentary conference of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Johnson made a vigorous bipartisan appeal for "a new long step toward a richer meaning for freedom."

The Texas senator told 200 assembled legislators from NATO's 15 countries "the voice of isolation is stilled in America."

"A new generation of Americans — who came to early maturity fighting for freedom on the fields of Europe and the islands of the Pacific—is coming to power in the leadership of our land," Johnson said.

Johnson stressed that he was speaking as a senator and not specifically outlining policies of the administration of President-elect John F. Kennedy. However, Kennedy read the speech when he and Johnson met last week in Texas.

While Johnson's appearance here had long been planned, he was aware that the U.S. election had elevated its importance and that the speech would be watched, especially by Europeans, as the first indication of the new administration's foreign policy.

The speech indicated the Kennedy Johnson administration would be more receptive toward moves to expand NATO's influence beyond the military field.

He warned that the U.S. election "was not a call to a more responsible life."

However, he said, "you here

2 Americans Wounded in Congo Hassle

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—A crowd of knife-wielding Congolese Sunday fell upon three American men and a woman whose car accidentally killed a Negro cyclist. Two of the Americans were wounded.

Chief Warrant Officer Clyde St. Lawrence of New Bedford, Mass., a member of the military attaché's staff at the U.S. Embassy, was stabbed three times as he ran from the car he had been driving.

Frank Carlucci of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., political officer at the embassy, stayed at the scene as the others fled. He was stabbed in the back and beaten before he jumped aboard a passing bus.

U.S. military attaché Lt. Col. Edward Dannemiller and his wife pushed through the crowd unhurt while it went after St. Lawrence. The latter was picked up by a U.S. vice consul, Alison Palmer of Amityville, Long Island, N. Y., who happened to be passing in her car.

St. Lawrence was taken to Lovanium Hospital and given a blood transfusion. His condition was described as not serious. Carlucci's wound required three stitches.

Carlucci said the cyclist crossed the road in front of them, then turned back as they swerved to miss him, putting himself directly in the path of the car.

know well the magnitude of President Eisenhower's service to NATO and to the strength of Western Europe. I want you to understand that President Eisenhower will leave public office with the continuing respect, trust and esteem of all his countrymen without regard to domestic partisanship."

U.N. Near Vote On Congo Issue

Kasavubu Is Expected To Win over Lumumba

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Foes of Congolese President Joseph Kasavubu mounted a last-ditch effort today to keep the U. N. General Assembly from seating him and his delegation.

But the prospect was that the assembly would vote to seat him anyway, late today or some time Tuesday. That would give the United States a victory over an Asian-African Communist faction favoring Kasavubu's bitter rival, deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba.

One experienced diplomat said the vote to seat Kasavubu might be as much as 60-20 with 18 abstaining. A day-long debate is expected and a special night session may be held.

The first four countries on the speakers' list — Yugoslavia, Guinea, Mali and Ceylon — have come out against Kasavubu.

Kasavubu, who came to New York two weeks ago to press his case, has said that until he is seated, he will not state his attitude toward the U. N. conciliation commission for the Congo.

Some diplomats say Kasavubu has indicated that once he gets the seat, he will welcome the 15-nation Asian-African commission to carry out its assignment of seeking peace among rival politicians. Others doubt that he will do so.

Guinea and Mali have said privately that if Kasavubu is seated they will quit the commission. Some on the commission say that if some of its members drop out, none should go to the Congo.

But Jaja Wachuku of Nigeria, commission chairman, told a reporter Sunday nothing would keep it from making the trip. He said talk of a boycott was "shadow boxing."

Wachuku dismissed the threat of Jose Nussbaumer, Congolese commissioner for the interior, that 5,000 soldiers would prevent the commission from landing at Leopoldville Airport.

One Injured In Collision

A passenger was injured in a car-truck crash at 2:35 p.m. yesterday at Lancaster Pike and Nicholas Drive.

Injured was Dora Burris, 17, a passenger in a truck driven by Mary E. Smith, 22, Route 2, Kings-ton. She was taken to Berger Hospital for head and neck injuries. The driver was not hurt.

The auto was driven by William C. Lyle, 26, of 458 E. Main St. He was not injured.

Patrolmen Garold Goldsberry and Dixie Waters said both vehicles were headed east on Lancaster Pike. They said the car struck the rear of the truck which was attempting to make a left turn.

Officers said both vehicles were extensively damaged.

Leftists Gain In Vote over Western Ties

Middle-Road Appeal Crushed as Ballot Goes to Extremes

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's pro-U.S. ruling conservatives rolled back to control of Parliament today but failed to get the all-out backing they had asked of the nation's voters.

The conservatives claimed their victory was a broad endorsement of the U.S.-Japan security pact and other close ties with the West. Their leftist opponents claimed leftist gains proved just the opposite.

The nationwide Sunday balloting that returned Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda's Liberal Democrats (conservatives) to power followed the same general pattern of elections in Japan since World War II. It showed a conservative majority battling a slowly but steadily increasing leftist minority.

A middle-road appeal, made by the Democratic Socialist party, was crushed as Japanese voters repeated their sharp swing to the right and left.

The Communists made their best showing in 10 years, increasing their vote from 2.6 to 2.9 per cent and winning three seats.

The vote came against a background of mob scenes in Parliament, violent demonstrations against the U.S.-Japan security pact and President Eisenhower's cancelled visit to Japan. While party leaders played on foreign policy themes during the campaign, regional and domestic issues and personalities were, as always, important.

With all but one of 467 parliamentary seats decided, the unofficial count gave this breakdown:

Liberal Democrats 296, Socialists, 145, Democratic Socialists 16, Communists 3, Agrarians 1, independents 5.

The five independents elected are considered in the conservative camp.

With 96 per cent of the popular vote tabulated, the Liberal Democrats had 22,106,738 or 57.8 per cent; the Socialists 10,468,245 for 27.4 per cent; Democratic Socialists 3,319,026 or 8.7 per cent; Communists 1,098,687 for 2.9 per cent; minor parties 134,311 for 0.3 per cent and the independents 1,096,994 for 2.9 per cent.

While the outcome gave Ikeda and his Liberal Democrats a solid victory, they failed in their announced aim of boosting their House strength to 312. That would have given them the two-thirds majority needed in the 467-member house to carry out long-range plans for amending the constitution to strengthen the status of the army and the emperor.

Last month Ikeda dissolved the old Parliament, in which his party held 283 seats, and asked the voters to return more than 300 Liberal Democrats to the ruling lower house.

Space Capsule Launch Fails

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An attempt to launch a man-in-space capsule on a crucial test failed today. The Redstone booster ignited and cut off and then a rocket escape tower broke loose and shot several thousand feet into the air.

The Redstone and the one-ton unmanned capsule were left on the pad.

The 15½-foot tall tower, resembling a miniature oil derrick and powered by three small solid-fuel rockets, pulled free from the capsule and rose through a low-hanging cloud bank. About 40 seconds later, it fell back onto the cape about 2,000 feet from the launching pad.

The Redstone was to boost the bell-shaped capsule 130 miles into space and drop it in the Atlantic 220 miles downrange.

New Orleans Awaits Ruling From Tribunal

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—An uncertain quiet prevailed in this troubled Deep South city today as it waited for a three-judge federal court to rule on school integration.

The three Southern judges considered these paths of action:

1. A school board request to suspend integration until federal-state differences are settled.

2. A federal move to enjoin state officials and prevent their interference with school integration. A temporary restraining order, now effective, expires when the court rules.

3. A state motion calling for dismissal of action against Louisiana officials and the return of schools to their traditionally segregated basis. The motion stems from a rarely used interposition act which advocates say gives the state power to use its sovereignty as a shield to block the federal integration order.

Judge Richard T. Rives of Montgomery, Ala., chief judge of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, declined to say when the ruling would be handed down.

While city and state officials awaited a court decision, New Orleans public schools closed for a week's holiday.

Police reported a calm weekend in sharp contrast to five stormy days that followed the admission of four Negro first graders to two white schools last Monday.

Bus Driver Lost In Dayton Area

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A big Greyhound bus was cruising in the Riverdale section of Dayton Saturday, a good two miles off its route and its driver admittedly lost.

The sheepish driver on the Detroit-Cincinnati run flagged down a policeman and explained he was supposed to be at the downtown bus terminal but couldn't find it.

The obliging policeman blocked off North Main Street traffic so the big double-decker could turn around and head south on Main. The officer also called ahead to another police cruiser to "pick up" the bus at the Main Street bridge and guide the driver to the bus station.

The driver wasn't sure but said he thought he had taken a wrong turn off Interstate 75.

Minor Hurts Suffered in Crashes Here

Only minor injuries were suffered in several accidents investigated in this area yesterday by State Highway Patrol Post 65.

Floyd Nutter, Route 3, Waverly suffered lacerations and contusions in a car-truck collision at 10:25 a. m. yesterday on Routes 56 and 159. He was taken to Berger Hospital.

The truck was operated by Jesse Voorhes, Route 1, Rockbridge. He escaped injury.

Patrolman W. D. Benson said the car was headed north on Route 159 and the truck west on Route 56. He said they collided in the intersection.

OFFICERS said both vehicles suffered extensive damage.

Victory Beecker, Route 1, Stoutsville, fortunately escaped injuries when the vehicle he was driving turned over on the Bell Station Road north of here and crashed into a creek.

Corporal Taylor of Post 65 here today advised all drivers to be cautious when crossing bridges during early morning hours. He said bridges and overhead passageways have been icy the last several mornings.

Russia Ousts U.S. Attache

He is the second U.S. air attache expelled from the Soviet Union in recent months.

Minister Counsellor Edward I. Freers was called to the Foreign Office this afternoon and told that McDonald must leave as soon as possible.

Here it was supposed that the expulsion order was in retaliation for the arrest of Igor Y. Melekh chief of the Russian translation section of the United Nations, in New York Aug. 27. Melekh is accused of espionage.

Over the weekend Kennedy divided his time between recreation and conferences dealing with reorganization of the Defense Department and discussion of the tense situation in the Caribbean area.

His house guests were two Democratic senators, Stuart Symington of Missouri and George Smathers of Florida.

Mentioned frequently as a Kennedy choice for secretary of defense, Symington said he had told the president-elect he feels he can be of more help to the new administration by staying in the Senate.

Johnson Tells West Allies Isolation Voice Stilled in U.S.

PARIS (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson today told America's Western allies the United States election in no sense was "a repudiation of President Eisenhower's support for the instruments of mutual strength in Western Europe."

Speaking at the opening of the annual parliamentarians conference of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Johnson made a vigorous bipartisan appeal for "a new long step toward a richer meaning for freedom."

The Texas senator told 200 assembled legislators from NATO's 15 countries "the voice of isolation is stilled in America."

"A new generation of Americans—who came to early maturity fighting for freedom on the fields of Europe and the islands of the Pacific—is coming to power in the leadership of our land," Johnson said.

Johnson stressed that he was speaking as a senator and not specifically outlining policies of the administration of President-elect John F. Kennedy. However, Kennedy read the speech when he and Johnson met last week in Texas.

While Johnson's appearance here had long been planned, he was aware that the U.S. election had elevated its importance and that the speech would be watched, especially by Europeans, as the first indication of the new administration's foreign policy.

The speech indicated the Kennedy Johnson administration would be more receptive toward moves to expand NATO's influence beyond the military field.

He warned that the U.S. election "was not a call to a more responsible life."

However, he said, "you here

2 Americans Wounded in Congo Hassle

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—A crowd of knife-wielding Congolese Sunday fell upon three American men and a woman whose car accidentally killed a Negro cyclist. Two of the Americans were wounded.

Chief Warrant Officer Clyde St. Lawrence of New Bedford, Mass., a member of the military attache's staff at the U.S. Embassy, was stabbed three times as he ran from the car he had been driving.

Frank Carlucci of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., political officer at the embassy, stayed at the scene so the others could get away. He was stabbed in the back and beaten before he jumped aboard a passing bus.

U.S. military attache Lt. Col. Edward Dannehill and his wife pushed through the crowd unhurt while it went after St. Lawrence. The latter was picked up by a U.S. vice consul, Alison Palmer of Amityville, Long Island, N. Y., who happened to be passing in her car.

St. Lawrence was taken to Lovanium Hospital and given a blood transfusion. His condition was described as not serious. Carlucci's wound required three stitches.

Carlucci said the cyclist crossed the road in front of them, then turned back as they swerved to miss him, putting himself directly in the path of the car.

NATO and to the strength of Western Europe. I want you to understand that President Eisenhower will leave public office with the continuing respect, trust and esteem of all his countrymen without regard to domestic partisanship."

U.N. Near Vote On Congo Issue

Kasavubu Is Expected To Win over Lumumba

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Foes of Congolese President Joseph Kasavubu mounted a last-ditch effort today to keep the U. N. General Assembly from seating him and his delegation.

But the prospect was that the assembly would vote to seat him anyway, late today or some time Tuesday. That would give the United States a victory over an Asian-African-Communist faction favoring Kasavubu's bitter rival, deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba.

One experienced diplomat said the vote to seat Kasavubu might be as much as 60-20 with 18 abstaining. A day-long debate is expected and a special night session may be held.

The first four countries on the speakers' list—Yugoslavia, Guinea, Mali and Ceylon—have come out against Kasavubu.

Kasavubu, who came to New York two weeks ago to press his case, has said that until he is seated, he will not state his attitude toward the U. N. conciliation commission for the Congo.

Some diplomats say Kasavubu has intimated that once he gets the seat, he will welcome the 15-nation Asian-African commission to carry out its assignment of seeking peace among rival politicians. Others doubt that he will do so.

Guinea and Mali have said privately that if Kasavubu is seated they will quit the commission. Some on the commission say that if some of its members drop out, none should go to the Congo.

But Jaja Wachuku of Nigeria, commission chairman, told a reporter Sunday nothing would keep it from making the trip. He said talk of a boycott was "shadow boxing."

Wachuku dismissed the threat of Jose Nussbaumer, Congolese commissioner for the interior, that 5,000 soldiers would prevent the commission from landing at Leopoldville Airport.

Frank Carlucci of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., political officer at the embassy, stayed at the scene so the others could get away. He was stabbed in the back and beaten before he jumped aboard a passing bus.

U.S. military attache Lt. Col. Edward Dannehill and his wife pushed through the crowd unhurt while it went after St. Lawrence. The latter was picked up by a U.S. vice consul, Alison Palmer of Amityville, Long Island, N. Y., who happened to be passing in her car.

One Injured In Collision

A passenger was injured in a car-truck crash at 2:55 p.m. yesterday at Lancaster Pike and Nicholas Drive.

Injured was Dora Burris, 17, a passenger in a truck driven by Mary E. Smith, 22, Route 2, Kings-ton. She was taken to Berger Hospital for head and neck injuries. The driver was not hurt.

The auto was driven by William C. Lyle, 26, of 458 E. Main St. He was not injured. Patrolmen Garold Goldsberry and Dixie Watters said both vehicles were headed east on Lancaster Pike. They said the car struck the rear of the truck which was attempting to make a left turn. Officers said both vehicles were extensively damaged.

Leftists Gain In Vote over Western Ties

Middle-Road Appeal Crushed as Ballot Goes to Extremes

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's pro-U.S. ruling conservatives rolled back to control of Parliament today but failed to get the all-out backing they had asked of the nation's voters.

The conservatives claimed their victory was a broad endorsement of the U.S.-Japan security pact and other close ties with the West. Their leftist opponents claimed leftist gains proved just the opposite.

The nationwide Sunday balloting that returned Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda's Liberal Democrats (conservatives) to power followed the same general pattern of elections in Japan since World War II. It showed a conservative majority battling a slowly but steadily increasing leftist minority.

A middle-road appeal, made by the Democratic Socialist party, was crushed as Japanese voters repeated their sharp swing to the right and left.

The Communists made their best showing in 10 years, increasing their vote from 2.6 to 2.9 per cent and winning three seats.

The vote came against a background of mob scenes in Parliament, violent demonstrations against the U.S.-Japan security pact and President Eisenhower's cancelled visit to Japan. While party leaders played on foreign policy themes during the campaign, regional and domestic issues and personalities were, as always, important.

With all but one of 467 parliamentary seats decided, the unofficial count gave this breakdown:

Liberal Democrats 296, Socialists, 145, Democratic Socialists 16, Communists 3, Agrarians 1, independents 5.

The five independents elected are considered in the conservative camp.

With 96 per cent of the popular vote tabulated, the Liberal Democrats had 22,106,738 or 57.8 per cent; the Socialists 10,468,245 or 27.4 per cent; Democratic Socialists 3,319,028 or 8.7 per cent; Communists 1,098,687 for 2.9 per cent; minor parties 134,311 for 0.3 per cent and the independents 1,096,994 for 2.9 per cent.

While the outcome gave Ikeda and his Liberal Democrats a solid victory, they failed in their announced aim of boosting their House strength to 312. That would have given them the two-thirds majority needed in the 467-member house to carry out long-range plans for amending the constitution to strengthen the status of the army and the emperor.

Last month Ikeda dissolved the old Parliament, in which his party held 283 seats, and asked the voters to return more than 300 Liberal Democrats to the ruling lower house.

Space Capsule Launch Fails

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An attempt to launch a man-in-space capsule on a crucial test failed today. The Redstone booster ignited and cut off and then a rocket escape tower broke loose and shot several thousand feet into the air.

The Redstone and the one-ton unmanned capsule were left on the pad.

The 15½-foot tall tower, resembling a miniature oil derrick and powered by three small solid-fuel rockets, pulled free from the capsule and rose through a low-hanging cloud bank. About 40 seconds later, it fell back onto the cape about 2,000 feet from the launching pad.

The Redstone was to boost the bell-shaped capsule 130 miles into space and drop it in the Atlantic 220 miles downrange.

Drugged Child Case Resumed In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The trial of Mrs. Lillian Frattantonio, 29, interrupted after five days last September because of the judge's fatal illness, begins anew today with selection of a juvenile court jury.

Charged with child-neglect in the drugging of her "sleeping beauty" daughters, Venita, 5, and Bernadette, 3, Mrs. Frattantonio has pleaded innocent. If convicted, she could receive a maximum sentence of a year in jail and a $500 fine.

A mistrial was declared on Sept. 28 because of the illness of Judge Margaret J. Spellacy, who presided at the first trial from Sept. 19, through Sept. 23. Judge Spellacy's illness resulted in her death two weeks ago.

Opposing counsel in the trial opening today are the same as two months ago and proceedings for the first several days are expected to retrace ground covered at the earlier trial.

Foul weather almost threw a cramp into a visit here yesterday by famous news commentator Lowell Thomas.

Thomas, scheduled to do a commercial TV film here for United States Steel, had trouble flying to Columbus due to fog which prevented his plane from landing on time.

After a forced landing at Cleveland, the huge aircraft carrying the noted author and radio announcer finally touched down in Columbus at about noon. The delay caused the local Jaycees welcoming committee some anxious moments and a most forced some well-laid plans to go astray.

However, once Thomas reached Circleville the show went off in good fashion and several Jaycees breathed a sigh of relief.

The Thomas film centered on the Pickaway County Library's Bookmobile. The show, featuring Thomas and several local persons, is scheduled as a commercial on the U. S. Steel Hour television show slated December 14.

A clear, brisk day highlighted the filming here which took place at Logan Elm School, Dunmore Road and at an area along S. Scioto St. and Union St.

Theme of the commercial film is "Lowell Thomas Views Progress in America". The Bookmobile operated by driver Weldon Owens and staff librarians Miss Dorothy Smedley and Mrs. Ralph Amey, played a prominent part in the filming.

The group left here early yesterday morning only to learn that the

Thomas plane couldn't land. They headed back to Circleville, but just north of the city were notified that the aircraft had managed to come in. On the first trip home Deputy Radcliff and Chief Temple halted the procession to handle an accident on Route 665 near Lockbourne.

A few minutes later they rushed back to Columbus to make another effort to get Thomas here. This time the try was a success.

Seven Treated at Berger
Five emergencies were treated and released and two were treated and transferred to University Hospital, Columbus, during the week-end.

William Shirey, 50, of 722 S. Washington St., cut his left middle, ring and index finger in an Diana Moss, 18 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moss, Route 1, drank bleach at home Saturday.

The Rev. Charles Paul, 65, Columbus, received chest injury and rib fractures in an auto accident south of Kingston yesterday. He was transferred to University Hospital.

Mrs. Charles Paul, 60, Columbus, passenger in the auto driven by her husband, received chest injuries in the accident south of Kingston. She was transferred to University Hospital.

RICKY KISE, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kise, Route 4, cut his right index finger while playing on a coal pile at home Saturday.

Phyllis Dawson, 1, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dawson, Canal Winchester, was treated after drinking kerosene at a friend's home yesterday.

Thomas Davidson, 20, of 364 Barnes Ave., suffered abrasion of the right leg when he fell from a ladder while putting a roof on a house trailer yesterday.

The meeting was called after federal tax agents raided a beer carryout establishment Friday and arrested two men on charges of engaging in horse race and football gambling tax stamp.

The Pony Keg, operated by Robert J. Cavanaugh, 49, is on Harrison Avenue, the main business thoroughfare through the city.

Zoller admitted to the councilmen that he had heard reports of gambling at the Pony Keg but declared he never had been able to get any evidence.

"He (Cavanaugh) only uses the phone," Zoller said. "When he sees you walk around the corner he hangs up."

Some of the councilmen questioned Zoller as to how federal agents got their evidence if the police chief could not get it. Zoller said he had told a state liquor agent of the reports of gambling at the Pony Keg and expressed belief the state officer may have tipped off federal agents.

Drugged Child Case Resumed In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The trial of Mrs. Lillian Frattantonio, 29, interrupted after five days last September because of the judge's fatal illness, begins anew today with selection of a juvenile court jury.

Charged with child-neglect in the drugging of her "sleeping beauty" daughters, Venita, 5, and Bernadette, 3, Mrs. Frattantonio has pleaded innocent. If convicted, she could receive a maximum sentence of a year in jail and a $500 fine.

A mistrial was declared on Sept. 26 because of the illness of Judge Margaret J. Spellacy, who presided at the first trial from Sept. 19 through Sept. 23. Judge Spellacy's illness resulted in her death two weeks ago.

Opposing counsel in the trial opening today are the same as two months ago and proceedings for the first several days are expected to retrace ground covered at the earlier trial.

Foul weather almost threw a cramp into a visit here yesterday by famous news commentator Lowell Thomas.

Thomas, scheduled to do a commercial TV film here for United States Steel, had trouble flying to Columbus due to fog which prevented his plane from landing on time.

After a forced landing at Cleveland, the huge aircraft carrying the noted author and radio announcer finally touched down in Columbus at about noon. The delay caused the local Jaycees welcoming committee some anxious moments and almost forced some well-laid plans to go astray.

However, once Thomas reached Circleville the show went off in good fashion and several Jaycees breathed a sigh of relief.

THE Thomas film centered on the Pickaway County Library's Bookmobile. The show, featuring Thomas and several local persons, is scheduled as a commercial on the U. S. Steel Hour television show slated December 14.

A clear, brisk day highlighted the filming here which took place at Logan Elm School, Dunmore Road and at an area along S. Seloto St. and Union St.

Theme of the commercial film is "Lowell Thomas Views Progress in America". The Bookmobile operated by driver Weldon Owens and staff librarians Miss Dorothy Smedley and Mrs. Ralph Amey, played a prominent part in the filming.

by Edgar Webb, Laurence Priest and Ned Schreiner of the Jaycees, Mayor Ben Gordon, Police Chief Robert Temple and Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff.

The group left here early yesterday morning only to learn that the

Thomas plane couldn't land. They headed back to Circleville, but just north of the city were notified that the aircraft had managed to come in. On the first trip home Deputy Radcliff and Chief Temple halted the procession to handle an accident on Route 663 near Lockbourne.

A few minutes later they rushed back to Columbus to make another effort to get Thomas here. This time the try was a success.

ANOTHER incident during the morning cropped up when Orley Bosworth, a member of the Jaycees, had battery trouble with his camera loaded cargo truck. The welcoming party doffed their dignity, pushed the truck around the edge of the airstrip and finally got it to running.

Although it was rather a tough day, the local Jaycees today thanked all who helped in the program, including Mayor Gordon, the sheriff and police departments, Beaver studio, local parents, the Continental Restaurant and others.

CINCINNATI (AP) — The City Council of suburban Cheviot plans a public hearing on reports of vice and gambling in that city of 10,693 which adjoins northwest Cincinnati.

Council voted at an unusual Sunday night meeting to hold the hearing after questioning Police Chief Emmet Zoller as to gambling operations.

The meeting was called after federal tax agents raided a beer carryout establishment Friday and arrested two men on charges of engaging in horse race and football gambling tax stamp.

The Pony Keg, operated by Robert J. Cavanaugh, 49, is on Harrison Avenue, the main business thoroughfare through the city.

Zoller admitted to the councilmen that he had heard reports of gambling at the Pony Keg but declared he never had been able to get any evidence.

"He (Cavanaugh) only uses the phone," Zoller said. "When he sees you walk around the corner he hangs up."

Some of the councilmen questioned Zoller as to how federal agents got their evidence if the police chief could not get it. Zoller said he had told a state liquor agent of the reports of gambling at the Pony Keg and expressed belief the state officer may have tipped off federal agents.

Government Must Keep Its Word

A lower court's ruling that when the government gives its word it should keep it is concurred in by the Supreme Court. The highest court has declined to review a decision denying the Federal Trade Commission access to the Census Bureau's confidential information.

Individual census reports cannot be used for purposes of taxation, regulation, or investigation. Neither can they be supplied to any other agency of the government. Not even an executive order can pry loose this information which has been made confidential by an act of Congress.

The FTC argued that it has the authority to require interstate corporations, in this case the Beatrice Foods Co. of Chicago, to answer questions about their business operations. The Census Bureau already has the information, so the FTC felt it would be wasteful and time-consuming to try to elicit it directly.

Refusal of access to the census reports, the FTC feels, will make its merger investigations more difficult. But the bureau has promised to treat individual reports in strictest confidence and to go back on its word would impede its own statistic-gathering job.

Besides, the bureau has a moral obligation to keep its promise.

Tests So Far Are Futile

Several instances of single families testing nuclear bomb shelters for a week or two have been in the news. A more ambitious area.

There 100 persons from two months to 68 years of age are participating in an untentious project is under way in the San Francisco shelter test lasting 48 hours. It is an experiment to determine the best way to protect the population in nuclear warfare.

This test is under ideal conditions. There are examinations for communicable disease. A dietitian has worked out menus suitable for both babies and adults. Warm clothing is provided along with sanitary facilities, air conditioning and other comforts.

But until the nation decides to act on these underground living experiments by providing shelters which the public can reach in 15 minutes, the tests are not very purposeful. Such shelters would cost $50 billion or more.

Widows Fascinate Presidents

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Widows seem to hold a fascination for U.S. presidents. Seven presidents, beginning with George Washington, married widows.

Here's another White House oddity: You are more likely to become president if you come from a large family. Eighteen came from families of six or more. None was an only child. When you are born into a large family, you have to learn how to get along with people—the politician's art.

Prosperity note: Singer Brian Hyland owned one suit and one pair of shoes before he made his hit recording. Now he has 20 suits and 30 pairs of shoes.

Sid Ascher gives this definition of women who worry too much about their weight: Hippo-chondriacs.

The ladies are getting their hands on more money all the time. More than half of the 625,000 people employed by U.S. banks are women.

Our quotable notables: "Most people," said John Erskine, "have some sort of a religion—at least they know which church they're staying away from."

A piano looks simple but it has 7,500 parts—more than an auto. Salesmanship in signs: a shoe store advertises: "Shoes—$8.50 a foot"—a barber shop proclaims:

It's Jack No Longer

Now that John F. Kennedy has been elected President, everybody knows Jack. They all knew when. They all knew his father and mother, his sisters and brothers, his aunts and cousins, his in-laws and presumably his outlaws.

So, we can skip all that for a while. Columnists who tell inside stories about Jack Kennedy and even his wife, prove nothing. Most of them repeat little rumors that sound intriguing when spoken but childish gossip when one thinks about it.

John F. Kennedy has been elected President of the United States and that's that. From now on, the President decides whom he wishes to know. He may have been Jack a week ago; today he is Mr. President and a gentleman never addresses him differently.

It is a lonely job that John Kennedy has now. He will sit in that Oval Room alone and all decisions will be his own. He can shift neither authority nor responsibility.

When one says that the President is alone, that is not quite so. He is guarded by Secret Service operatives; he is served by secretaries; he has to make appointments so closely fitted that he hardly has time for himself or his family.

In our country, he suffers the pomp of royalty as well as the labors of an executive. His every moment is watched; he has not a second of privacy nor can he arrange for privacy. Since William McKinley was assassinated, the President and every member of his family are guarded by an entire nation.

John Kennedy is a member of a gregarious, extroverted clan. The Kennedys like people. True, they are somewhat brash but delightfully so. It is going to be psychologically difficult for Jack Kennedy to take on the full weight of Mr. President, but he will do precisely that, and many who believe that they have an inside track may discover that there is no track.

The father, Joseph Kennedy, has not made his enormous success in life by catering to cronies. Sure, he is unpopular with those who regard him as a lone wolf who gives a smile and a handshake and moves on. But Joe Kennedy has been loyal to those who are deserving of loyalty.

And it is likely that the children have learned from the father that the way to live is to get the job done and never to carry excess baggage.

It is not at all surprising that Kennedy flew to see Nixon to take the bad taste out of the campaign. That was the gentlemanly thing to do. The noise of a campaign should leave no hard feelings.

This country needs at this moment all the talent available and Kennedy will undoubtedly search for talent and wisdom. I doubt whether he will have any prejudices against any man of talent but he is likely to rid himself quickly of hangers-on and wise guys.

Most Presidents soon become slaves of the White House. They only know what their hired staff tells them. They only read what is handed to them, if the read at all.

John Kennedy is blessed with a literate, loyal, well-trained family. They will be his eyes and ears and they will speak up as they always have done within the Kennedy family. They will not lie. They will not sell him for a fee. They will not make trouble for him.

The nation saw this family work during the campaign. They saw a Robert Kennedy work for his brother as few men work for themselves. This is a clan—the Kennedys—and they stay together in the old-fashioned style.

So the fellows who knew Jack "when" might just as well let it go at that. We have heard their stories and tales and gossip and after January 20th, it will all sound pretty cheap. We give our President at least 100 days of a honeymoon with his job. After that we criticize according to our beliefs as to what is right or wrong, but during the whole of his tenure in office, he is Mr. President and one takes off his hat. Then comes the next election and we go to it with full force.

It may be a little different this time. We are at war; we are in danger. It may be necessary for all forces to join together without partisanship until the dollar is restored and our economy is safe.

WHEN CARTER BURGESS became president of T.W.A., reports Walter Trohan, speakers heaped an hour of praise and adulation on his head. His entire acceptance speech was, "I am sorry, gentlemen, my mother could not be here today. She not only would have enjoyed this impressive ceremony, but she would have believed every word of it!"

Laos Reverts To 1957 Policy

TOKYO (AP)—Laotian premier Souvanna Phouma's agreement to set up a coalition government with the pro-Communist Pathet Lao turns back the clock three years.

Inclusion of Communist members in the royal government represents a return to the "Vietiane agreements" of 1957 which were purported to achieve reunification of Laos.

On Nov. 30, of that year Prince Souvanna Phouma formed a coalition cabinet with the Pathet Lao after lengthy negotiations, giving Cabinet posts to his pro-Communist half-brother Prince Souvanna Vong and his deputy.

The agreements provided for the disbanding of Pathet Lao armed units which controlled the two northern provinces of Phong Saly and Sam Neua except two battalions which were to be integrated into the royal Laotian army.

Disputes led to the rebellion of one of these battalions in the spring of 1959 and to the Laotian crisis later in the summer.

Earlier, the government of pro-Western Phoui Sananikone had ousted the two Pathet Lao members from the Cabinet.

The situation differed then in that the royal government did not have to fight on two fronts. Now, neutralist Souvanna is faced with rebellion from the right wing under former Defense Minister Gen. Phoumi Nosavan which controls an undetermined but important following in the country's armed forces.

Because of that, Premier Souvanna today is far more vulnerable to Communist pressures than he was three years ago when all the country rallied behind him.

His latest move had clearly shown as much. He has yielded to practically all demands the Pathet Lao made last September as prerequisites to opening talks with the royal government. These were a mixed government with Pathet Lao members; establishment of diplomatic relations with North Viet Nam and Communist China, besides the Soviet Union; purge of all elements supporting the right-wing group of Gen. Phoumi Nosavan at Savannakhet; and no talks with Savannakhet.

But while the political situation in the capital is swinging left, the military balance of power may be tipping right. The military garrison of the royal capital of Luang Prabang has broken away from Vietnamese control and army chief of staff Gen. Ouane Rathikone has joined the right wing rebels.

Some 12 million persons in the United States purchase hunting licenses each year.

The World Today

By James Marlow

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
(For James Marlow)

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet affairs experts conjure up a frightening picture of the use the Kremlin might make of the U.S.S.R.'s burgeoning economic strength.

From one standpoint, it matters little when or whether the Russians make good their boast of overtaking United States production. The key word is trouble, and there is plenty of trouble in store for the United States in any event.

There is no argument with the proposition that Soviet economic power is rising swiftly. The big question is: What does the Kremlin intend to do with this power and what does it hope to achieve?

And how will it affect the consumer—and the risk of changing the monolithic dictatorship structure of Soviet rule? Will it be thrown into military adventuring? Or will it be used in another kind of bid for world domination through enormous investment in economic aid to underdeveloped countries?

All signs point to the latter. No qualified student of Soviet affairs says the Kremlin intends world conquest by military means. But few doubt that it intends world conquest by economic means, with the use of vast productive capacities channeled and concentrated upon political goals.

The Russians now say they expect to fulfill their current seven-year plan a year ahead of schedule, in 1964. Their newest published estimates are that they will catch up with the United States by 1968 in those production spheres which are important to the Kremlin. The Kremlin then would be ready for the big offensive.

These hopes seem much exaggerated. If consumer goods are ruled out of the picture, Soviet production might overtake American by 1973.

But there's small comfort in that. There is little expectation that the Kremlin intends waiting until its over-all production catches up. Already—at the expense of the Soviet consumer—it shows signs of preparing to throw enough Soviet resources into foreign economic aid programs to affect significantly the political behavior of emerging countries.

Soviet economic power already is a potent weapon of politics in Kremlin foreign policy, backed by an evident Kremlin confidence in Soviet military might.

The experts are not about to reach for the panic button, however. Another side to the coin is this: The Kremlin is loaded with its own contradictions, which can inhibit and interfere with its offensives abroad to expand communism.

The U.S.S.R. cannot veer away from a east-of-us, inefficient system for fear that the ruling dictatorship's concentrated power will be diluted. Centralization of power long has adversely affected the Soviet economy, and there is strong pressure from Soviet technocrats now in favor of more and more decentralization.

Russians have sensed the emergence of a new sort of leadership which finds itself having to compromise between needs of the Communist party's power structure and the rising demands of an educated population.

The Kremlin is demanding more and more production per worker and more and more quality in production. To help achieve this, it has instituted systems of labor incentives and bonuses along with high wages in some spheres. But this applies new purchasing power pressure and there is not enough consumer production to absorb it. Close observers are confident that, given sufficient time, this pressure will begin to change the structure of Soviet society.

But they add a word of warning: The hierarchy would rather slow down the rate of Soviet growth deliberately than take chances with reforms which might bring about dangerous change. The party leadership does not want its all-prevailing influence over Soviet life to be weakened.

Kennedy's Brother Tipped for Cabinet

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said President-elect John F. Kennedy "is giving serious consideration to the appointment of his younger brother Robert as attorney general." A Palm Beach, Fla., dispatch by W. H. Lawrence added: "No final decision has been made and none probably will be until the two brothers have had an opportunity to talk out the matter fully."

Robert Kennedy, 34, already has made a national reputation as counsel for Senate investigating committees. Among them was the Senate Labor Management Committee which investigated Teamsters' head James R. Hoffa.

Wilmington Probing Shooting of Boy, 14

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Wilmington police continued investigation today of the fatal shooting of 14-year-old Charles James Kuhns. The boy, shot through the heart with a .22 caliber bullet, was found by hunters Saturday near a cemetery here.

Another boy, 15, was taken into custody for questioning. Police Chief Stanley Irwin said the older boy claimed the shooting was accidental as he and Kuhns were firing at targets with a pistol.

U.N. Seeks Vote on Kasavubu Bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The General Assembly called a special session Saturday to try to reach a vote on Congo President Joseph Kasavubu's bid for a U.N. seat.

Kasavubu appeared a step closer to victory as the assembly prepared to act on its Credentials Committee's proposal to give him the vacant Congo seat. But opponents of the Congo president launched a last-ditch move to delay the ballot.

The Soviet Union, which has bitterly opposed Kasavubu ever since he threw out left-leaning Patrice Lumumba as Congo premier, was high on today's list of assembly speakers. The Soviets were expected to support a move by Guinea to hold up Kasavubu's credentials.

No reason was disclosed for the alleged slaying but the sheriff said he believed the two men were drinking just prior to the shooting.

Near Blind Couple Delivers Own Baby

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Albert Lemcool is almost blind. So is his wife, Drenice. Yet they managed to deliver their 6-pound, 7-ounce daughter at home last week without the aid of a doctor.

"I didn't do much," commented Lemcool, 25, who has had no previous experience at baby delivery.

Lemcool, an X-ray darkroom worker, and his wife, 22, had been expecting the baby for three weeks. It arrived at 3 a.m. The parents, who met at the Saginaw Institute for the Blind, have been married four years and have a 2-year-old daughter.

Lemcool has 21 per cent vision. His wife is able to see to a distance of about six inches.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

No Rest for the Weary!

DEAR ABBY: I drive a trailer truck for long-distance hauling. I came in off the road after a 2200-mile trip and the first thing my wife said was, "let's go for a ride."

I tried to explain that I wasn't in the mood but she said she didn't care, that she and the kids hadn't been out of the house for nine days and she wanted to get out a little. Do you think I should have taken her for a ride?

TEED OFF

DEAR TEED: You should have. But not then.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing to you with the desperate hope that you can help us with our daughter, who is eleven. She is a petit mal epileptic and fairly well controlled by medicine. She is mentally and physically mature beyond her years and is exceptionally talented musically. But she is on the verge of being expelled from public school because she is absent almost every other day. She fakes illness and comes home constantly. We know she does this because she fears the humiliation of having an epileptic seizure before her classmates, although this has never happened. We can't help her at home, Abby. Is there a place we can send her for treatment, education and rehabilitation with experts in this field? We aren't rich but we would mortgage everything we own to help her.

DESPERATE MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Write to the Federal Association for Epilepsy, 1729 F Street N. W., Washington, D. C. The Association sponsors the National Children's Rehabilitation Center for epileptics who, for one reason or another, cannot be educated in public schools. The Center admits children from 7 to 16 years of age. The fee for your child will be based on your husband's income and family obligations.

DEAR ABBY: Why did you tell that woman she shouldn't shake her dust mop out the window? If it saves her walking down a flight of stairs and going out to the back yard, I can't see what's wrong with it. If she were my neighbor, I'd say "Shake it my way, Dearie." I'm for anything that saves work.

"PRACTICAL"

If you want a personal reply from Abby, write to her in care of this paper. She answers All letters.

'Art of Dress' Is Topic at Sorority Meet

It was announced that two entries would be submitted to the International "Name the Painting" contest.

Plans for a Christmas party and gift exchange were made by the members.

Those present were Miss McLaughlin, Mrs. Alkire, Mrs. Reber Bell, Mrs. Frank Boyer, Mrs. Clyde Cook Jr., Mrs. Richard Robbins, Mrs. Howard Snook, Mrs. Orville West, Mrs. Jackqueline Jolliffe, Mrs. Emil Kurtz and Mrs. Lawrence Hartman.

Ruth Circle Hosts Session

Nineteen members were present at the Ruth Circle session of First EUB Church last Monday in the home of Mrs. Porter Martin, Route 3.

Mrs. Clarence Willoughby presided during the business session. Treasurer report was given by Mrs. George Ankrom.

Mrs. Cora Coffland, a member of the Ruth Circle living in Beloit, Wis., was a guest.

Mrs. C. O. Kerns was in charge of the program. Mrs. Ankrom, Miss Magie Mavis and Mrs. Kerns gave readings.

Contests were won by Mrs. Hixon and Mrs. Clifford Davis. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Martin.

A carry-in - dinner and New Year's gift exchange will be held in January at the service center.

You can steam a wholefish in the oven. Place the fish on a rack in a roasting pan; add hot water but don't have it touch the fish. Cover the pan and steam until the fish flakes easily, using moderate oven heat.

When you are cleaning a chicken or turkey, run cold water through the body cavity and with your fingers remove any bits of lung or giblets adhering inside.

Wall Street Tries To Guess Business Trend

Plans of Consumer,
New Administration
To Play Main Roles

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market is over its brief election fling and is back trying to guess what business will be like when spring comes.

What the new administration will want to do and what it actually will do will play a part.

But the market seems to be saying that a greater role will be taken by business and consumer forces. What the majority now think, right or wrong, is that the forces pulling the economy down in the last six months or so will have lost their strength in another six and that spring or maybe summer will find times generally on the upgrade.

What optimism this generates among stock traders is pretty well tempered just now by the prospect of continued dragging in many lines for the immediate future. And for the long run there is the growing tendency of consumers to spend more of their money for services of all kinds and less proportionately for the goods that factories turn out.

The stock market's post-election fling was relatively mild. For two weeks before stock prices had been rising most of the time.

On the day before the polling The Associated Press 60-stock price index stood at 211.8. The day after the election it rose to 212.4 and the next day, Nov. 10, to 215.5. Then it backed away and alternately rose and fell, until on Nov. 18, after eight days of post-election trading, it closed at 214.3.

On a chart the whole process would even out pretty much along the rising line it had been taking before the voters acted.

The Dow-Jones industrial index of 30 stocks followed much the same course. On Nov. 7 it was 597.63; Nov. 9 it rose to 602.25; hit a high of 612.01 Nov. 10; fell back and closed last week at 603.5.

Some of the mildness of the reaction to Sen. Kennedy's election is likely due to uncertainty as to just what he will actually propose and, more important, just how he'll propose to go about it. And there's considerable doubt that the strong conservative bloc in Congress would let him take any really radical steps.

Today many stock analysts are taking this tack: Stock prices have been depressed because the economy slackened off; but since the decline of the last six months was relatively slight, prospects for a recovery fairly soon are that much brighter.

At home the economy still has to shake off these downward pressures: the hand-to-mouth inventory policy which holds new orders at a minimum; the over capacity built into many industries in the last few years; the consequent drop in plans for more plant and equipment spending; the still rising costs that crimp profits because competition is too keen for prices to rise at a like rate; and a tendency on the part of some consumers to wait and see before spending much beyond the outlays to which they're already committed.

Abroad the pressures are strong and often uncharted.

They are both political and financial. The stock market tends to react quickly to any marked change in the overseas news.

Ohio Has Plenty of Water, But It Is Running Away

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio has plenty of water for its people and its industries, but just the same there are perplexing problems still to be solved.

That is the conclusion of the Ohio Water Commission which has called a water management conference here for Dec. 8-9.

The commission says: "Water would be no problem in Ohio if it would just behave the way we wanted it to. There is plenty of it. But it runs away from us. It backs up on us. It evaporates. It infiltrates. It gets polluted. Our problem is: We neglect water."

Here are a few of the problems to be discussed at the meeting, as outlined by the commission, a branch of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources:

Ohio has shortages: Ohio is a

Nation's Steel Stockpile Said Near Minimum

CLEVELAND (AP) — If steel production reaches no upturn the rest of the year, consumers' stockpiles will be down to nine million tons, the magazine Steel says.

This would be less than they had at the end of the 1959 strike, and market analysts hope steel users would have to start ordering as much metal as they're using. Said Steel:

"Probable result: Moderate gains for steel production and shipments during next year's first quarter."

Meanwhile the market remains dormant and the national production rate was off one-tenth of a point last week to 51.4 per cent of rated capacity.

Steel said that if the industry averages that production rate for the rest of the year, the 1960 annual output still can reach 100 million tons. That could be the sixth largest production year in the industry's history. But it pointed out that the goal cannot be reached if the mills shut down some furnaces and keep them down a while after the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

The magazine surveyed 7,450 metalworking plants and found that more than one-third of them plan new plants, additions or new equipment that would raise their capacity next year. The total increase is expected to be about 3.5 per cent, said Steel, noting that smaller plants were doing most of the expanding.

Portsmouth's Census To Be Checked Again

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Municipal officials, bemoaning the "fact" Portsmouth lost 3,388 people between 1950 and 1960 according to the 1960 census, have been cheered somewhat because a federal census recount has given 1,200 people back to the city. George T. Meholick says the city still plans its own count, to be taken by volunteer workers. Meholick said the census bureau notified him that the original figure of 33,410 in the 1960 count has been increased to 34,637.

Camping Capers

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP) — The Chapel Hill Weekly published this letter from a 7-year-old lad, away at camp, to his parents: "Dear Mummy and Daddy: "Today we went on a hike and I learned that caterpillars don't bite and 2 times 9 is 17 and you can not swim after lunch because lunch makes you sink. Please send me some socks because my counselors dog ate all mine except two and I lended one to Jacky because his itch."

state with generally abundant water, but in hearings held by the commission this year, serious water supply problems were reported in areas all over the state—at Amesville and Albany, Athens County; at Wilmington in Clinton County; Richfield Township, and at Twinsburg, in Summit County; Willoughby, in Lake County, where a permit system is being studied; in Wood County's North Baltimore where a "serious water shortage" was reported; in the Archbold-Fayette area in Fulton County where lack of underground water is reported making farmland worthless, and in Huron County where a shortage is noted near Monroeville.

Reservoirs: Large reservoir sites, important for both water supply and flood control, are year by year becoming "extinct" in Ohio. When a city spreads into a valley, it is no longer economically feasible to pay for moving the city in order to be able to back water into the valley. This means that floods will still come and go downstream, with the loss of life and property damage. The water supply potential for that area is reduced, and a recreational asset is lost. "The simple fact is," the commission says, "is that the sooner a reservoir is built, the cheaper it is, and the more effective it can be."

Floods: In January 1959 flooding caused about $100 million damage in Ohio and the loss of 16 lives. The 1913 flood, which caused five times as much damage, in 1960 dollars, took 367 lives. "Either one of these floods could be repeated next week," the commission said, adding:

"The reason for this is not that the Corps of Engineers has been inactive. It has spent $100 million in Ohio for flood control works, along with 100 millions by other agencies and interests—but it is because people put buildings in flood plains where high water will cover them. It is an economic impossibility for flood protection to keep up with the pace of ill-advised construction."

Underground water, the commission said, "the pure and cold staple upon which much of our occupation of Ohio's land area depends, is in many places becoming undrinkable." As an example, the commission cited Sandusky, Erie, Huron and Seneca counties where it said there exists a practice of waste disposal by drilling wells similar to water wells. They empty into the same water-bearing limestone formation from which water supply is drawn, and the expected result occurs: sewage comes out of drinking water pipes.

"The city of Bellevue, for instance," the commission said, "has in effect a circulating system in which diluted, affluent is being used by residents in the area for drinking, bathing, and cooking. And because there is no law to compel them, residential subdividers often give no consideration to water supply and sewage disposal. Effluent from septic tanks and leaching tile fields discharge directly into water-bearing sand and gravel or into limestone. This has occurred in Norwich and Perry Townships, Franklin County."

These and many other problems are the ones to be discussed in the December meeting. The commission said that anyone who feels that he has a stake in the future of water resources can attend and share in the examination of the problems, current progress and formation of future action.

Women in His Life Reveal Type Man Clark Gable Was

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The woman in a man's life help reveal what kind of person he was.

Clark Gable had five wives and many sweethearts. They, perhaps provide the most useful means of understanding the fabulous star, who otherwise revealed little of his true self.

Wife No. 1 was Josephine Dillon, a warm-hearted actress and director who met him in a Portland, Ore., theater and taught him how to act. They married in 1924, when he was 23 and she was 40. They were divorced in 1930.

Wife No. 2 was Rita Langham, a double divorcee Gable married in 1931 when he was 30 and she was 41. They were divorced in 1935.

Why would a man of legendary sex appeal twice marry women much older than himself? The answer seems to lie in Gable's early life. He never knew his mother, never had the stability of a permanent home. It's possible he sought in older women a security he had never known.

The first Mrs. Gable offered some insight on her famed husband: "He's a fine actor. The Clark Gable you see on the screen, that playful rogue with the happy-go-lucky mischievous glint in his eye, is not the real Gable. The real Gable is moody and thoughtful and gloomy."

Lusty, fun-loving Carole Lombard seemed a perfect match for Gable. She pulled him out of his gloom, and their raucous life together became a legend. They had met and quarreled at a party; next day, she sent a cage of doves to his apartment. That became their way of settling arguments.

She called him Pappy and he called her Mrs. G. She once sent him for Valentine's Day an ancient Ford painted white with red hearts. He hopped up the motor and drove it for a year.

On the night of Jan. 16, 1942, he was waiting at Glendale Airport for her return from a war bond selling tour. She never made it. Her plane had crashed into Mt. Charleston, Nev.

Gable plunged into depression. Carole's last message to him from Amarillo, Tex., had been: "Hey, Pappy, you'd better get into this man's army." He enlisted as a private that year.

After the war, Gable resumed dating, sometimes with glamour girls like Paulette Goddard, Virginia Grey, Anita Colby and Evelyn Keyes, sometimes with mature socialites like Dolly O'Brien and Millicent Rogers. In 1949, he surprised everyone by eloping with thrice-married Lady Sylvia Ashley, widow of Douglas Fairbanks Sr.

Gable had popped the question at a party the night before. It proved to be a wrong impulse. Within a year, he told her: "I wish to be free; I don't want to be married to you or anyone else." Her friends said she felt like the second wife in "Rebecca," living in the same house with Carole Lombard's memory. His friends said he couldn't stand her lap dog and her chi-chi friends.

The star again played the field, dallying briefly with Grace Kelly — "If I had been 15 years younger, I would have made a real play for her." One of his dates lamented her chances: "He wants a wife who can dress to the hilt at night and cook flapjacks over a campfire in the daytime."

Kay Williams Spreckels, a friend for 15 years, qualified. Again he eloped, again with a mature woman of the world. The marriage brought him much happiness and he guarded it against intrusion from the outside world. His happiness was compounded by the prospect of becoming a father for the first time.

But death intervened.

Wilmington, Muskingum To Host Injury Clinics

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two regional conferences will be held Nov. 28 to discuss prevention and care of injuries in high school athletics. The meetings will be held at Wilmington College and Muskingum College. High school coaches, trainers, athletic directors, faculty managers, administrators and physicians will attend the meetings.

Sponsored jointly by the Ohio High School Athletic Association and the Ohio State Medical Association, the conferences will emphasize procedures aimed at giving the athlete the best possible protection.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market is over its brief election fling and is back trying to guess what business will be like when spring comes.

What the new administration will want to do and what it actually will do will play a part.

But the market seems to be saying that a greater role will be taken by business and consumer forces. What the majority now think, right or wrong, is that the forces pulling the economy down in the last six months or so will have lost their strength in another six and that spring or maybe summer will find times generally on the upgrade.

What optimism this generates among stock traders is pretty well tempered just now by the prospect of continued dragging in many lines for the immediate future. And for the long run there is the growing tendency of consumers to spend more of their money for services of all kinds and less proportionately for the goods that factories turn out.

The stock market's post-election fling was relatively mild. For two weeks before stock prices had been rising most of the time.

On the day before the polling The Associated Press 60-stock price index stood at 211.8. The day after the election it rose to 212.4 and the next day, Nov. 10, to 215.5. Then it backed away and alternately rose and fell, until on Nov. 18, after eight days of post-election trading, it closed at 214.3.

On a chart the whole process would even out pretty much along the rising line it had been taking before the voters acted.

The Dow-Jones industrial index of 30 stocks followed much the same course. On Nov. 7 it was 597.63; Nov. 9 it rose to 602.25; hit a high of 612.01 Nov. 10; fell back and closed last week at 603.5.

Some of the mildness of the reaction to Sen. Kennedy's election is likely due to uncertainty as to just what he will actually propose and, more important, just how he'll propose to go about it. And there's considerable doubt that the strong conservative bloc in Congress would let him take any really radical steps.

Today many stock analysts are taking this tack: Stock prices have been depressed because the economy slackened off; but since the decline of the last six months was relatively slight, prospects for a recovery fairly soon are that much brighter.

At home the economy still has to shake off these downward pressures: the hand-to-mouth inventory policy which holds new orders at a minimum; the over capacity built into many industries in the last few years; the consequent drop in plans for more plant and equipment spending; the still rising costs that crimp profits because competition is too keen for prices to rise at a like rate; and a tendency on the part of some consumers to wait and see before spending much beyond the outlays to which they're already committed.

Abroad the pressures are strong and often uncharted.

They are both political and financial. The stock market tends to react quickly to any marked change in the overseas news.

Ohio Has Plenty of Water, But It Is Running Away

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio has plenty of water for its people and its industries, but just the same there are perplexing problems still to be solved.

That is the conclusion of the Ohio Water Commission which has called a water management conference here for Dec. 8-9.

The commission says: "Water would be no problem in Ohio if it would just behave the way we wanted it to. There is plenty of it. But it runs away from us. It backs up on us. It evaporates. It infiltrates. It gets polluted. Our problem is: We neglect water."

Here are a few of the problems to be discussed at the meeting, as outlined by the commission, a branch of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources:

Ohio has shortages: Ohio is a

Nation's Steel Stockpile Said Near Minimum

CLEVELAND (AP) — If steel production reaches no upturn the rest of the year, consumers' stockpiles will be down to nine million tons, the magazine Steel says.

This would be less than they had at the end of the 1959 strike, and market analysts hope steel users would have to start ordering as much metal as they're using. Said Steel:

"Probable result: Moderate gains for steel production and shipments during next year's first quarter."

Meanwhile the market remains dormant and the national production rate was off one-tenth of a point last week to 51.4 per cent of rated capacity.

Steel said that if the industry averages that production rate for the rest of the year, the 1960 annual output still can reach 100 million tons. That could be the sixth largest production year in the industry's history. But it pointed out that the goal cannot be reached if the mills shut down some furnaces and keep them down a while after the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

The magazine surveyed 7,450 metalworking plants and found that more than one-third of them plan new plants, additions or new equipment that would raise their capacity next year. The total increase is expected to be about 3.5 per cent, said Steel, noting that smaller plants were doing most of the expanding.

Portsmouth's Census To Be Checked Again

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Municipal officials, bemoaning the "fact" Portsmouth lost 3,388 people between 1950 and 1960 according to the 1960 census, have been cheered somewhat because a federal census recount has given 1,200 people back to the city. George T. Meholick says the city still plans its own count, to be taken by volunteer workers. Meholick said the census bureau notified him that the original figure of 33,410 in the 1960 count has been increased to 34,637.

Camping Capers

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP) — The Chapel Hill Weekly published this letter from a 7-year-old lad, away at camp, to his parents: "Dear Mummy and Daddy: "Today we went on a hike and I learned that caterpillars don't bite and 2 times 9 is 17 and you can not swim after lunch because lunch makes you sink. Please send me some socks because my counselors dog ate all mine except two and I lended one to Jacky because his itch."

state with generally abundant water, but in hearings held by the commission this year, serious water supply problems were reported in areas all over the state—at Amesville and Albany, Athens County; at Wilmington in Clinton County; Richfield Township, and at Twinsburg, in Summit County; Willoughby, in Lake County, where a permit system is being studied; in Wood County's North Baltimore where a "serious water shortage" was reported; in the Archbold-Fayette area in Fulton County where lack of underground water is reported making farmland worthless, and in Huron County where a shortage is noted near Monroeville.

Reservoirs: Large reservoir sites, important for both water supply and flood control, are year by year becoming "extinct" in Ohio. When a city spreads into a valley, it is no longer economically feasible to pay for moving the city in order to be able to back water into the valley. This means that floods will still come and go downstream, with the loss of life and property damage. The water supply potential for that area is reduced, and a recreational asset is lost. "The simple fact is," the commission says, "is that the sooner a reservoir is built, the cheaper it is, and the more effective it can be."

Floods: In January 1959 flooding caused about $100 million damage in Ohio and the loss of 16 lives. The 1913 flood, which caused five times as much damage, in 1960 dollars, took 367 lives. "Either one of these floods could be repeated next week," the commission said, adding:

"The reason for this is not that the Corps of Engineers has been inactive. It has spent $100 million in Ohio for flood control works, along with 100 millions by other agencies and interests—but it is because people put buildings in flood plains where high water will cover them. It is an economic impossibility for flood protection to keep up with the pace of ill-advised construction."

Underground water, the commission said, "the pure and cold staple upon which much of our occupation of Ohio's land area depends, is in many places becoming undrinkable." As an example, the commission cited Sandusky, Erie, Huron and Seneca counties where it said there exists a practice of waste disposal by drilling wells similar to water wells. They empty into the same water-bearing limestone formation from which water supply is drawn, and the expected result occurs: sewage comes out of drinking water pipes.

"The city of Bellevue, for instance," the commission said, "has in effect a circulating system in which diluted, affluent is being used by residents in the area for drinking, bathing, and cooking. And because there is no law to compel them, residential subdividers often give no consideration to water supply and sewage disposal. Effluent from septic tanks and leaching tile fields discharge directly into water-bearing sand and gravel or into limestone. This has occurred in Norwich and Perry Townships, Franklin County."

These and many other problems are the ones to be discussed in the December meeting. The commission said that anyone who feels that he has a stake in the future of water resources can attend and share in the examination of the problems, current progress and formation of future action.

TALL TAIL — That ceramic cat's tail has grown 48 inches since Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seneca of Manteno, Ill., bought it on their honeymoon in Arizona 13 years ago. The plant was an inch tall then. It is only three-quarters of an inch thick at its base and still is in its original pot.

Women in His Life Reveal Type Man Clark Gable Was

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The women in a man's life help reveal what kind of person he was.

Clark Gable had five wives and many sweethearts. They, perhaps, provide the most useful means of understanding the fabulous star, who otherwise revealed little of his true self.

Wife No. 1 was Josephine Dillon, a warm-hearted actress and director who met him in a Portland, Ore., theater and taught him how to act. They married in 1924, when he was 23 and she was 40. They were divorced in 1930.

Wife No. 2 was Rita Langham, a double divorcee Gable married in 1931 when he was 30 and she was 41. They were divorced in 1935.

Why would a man of legendary sex appeal twice marry women much older than himself? The answer seems to lie in Gable's early life. He never knew his mother, never had the stability of a permanent home. It's possible he sought in older women a security he had never known.

The first Mrs. Gable offered some insight on her famed husband: "He's a fine actor. The Clark Gable you see on the screen, that playful rogue with the happy-go-lucky mischievous glint in his eye, is not the real Gable. The real Gable is moody and thoughtful and gloomy."

Lusty, fun-loving Carole Lombard seemed a perfect match for Gable. She pulled him out of his gloom, and their raucous life together became a legend. They had met and quarreled at a party; next day, she sent a cage of doves to his apartment. That became their way of settling arguments.

She called him Pappy and he called her Mrs. G. She once sent him for Valentine's Day an ancient Ford painted white with red hearts. He hopped up the motor and drove it for a year.

On the night of Jan. 16, 1942, he was waiting at Glendale Airport for her return from a war bond selling tour. She never made it. Her plane had crashed into Mt. Charleston, Nev.

Gable plunged into depression. Carole's last message to him from Amarillo, Tex., had been: "Hey, Pappy, you'd better get into this man's army." He enlisted as a private that year.

After the war, Gable resumed dating, sometimes with glamour girls like Paulette Goddard, Virginia Grey, Anita Colby and Evelyn Keyes, sometimes with mature socialites like Dolly O'Brien and Millicent Rogers. In 1949, he surprised everyone by eloping with thrice-married Lady Sylvia Ashley, widow of Douglas Fairbanks Sr.

Gable had popped the question at a party the night before. It proved to be a wrong impulse. Within a year, he told her: "I wish to be free; I don't want to be married to you or anyone else." Her friends said she felt like the second wife in "Rebecca," living in the same house with Carole Lombard's memory. His friends said he couldn't stand her lap dog and her chi-chi friends.

The star again played the field, dallying briefly with Grace Kelly — "If I had been 15 years younger, I would have made a real play for her." One of his dates lamented her chances: "He wants a wife who can dress to the hilt at night and cook flapjacks over a campfire in the daytime."

Kay Williams Spreckels, a friend for 15 years, qualified. Again he eloped, again with a mature woman of the world. The marriage brought him much happiness and he guarded it against intrusion from the outside world. His happiness was compounded by the prospect of becoming a father for the first time.

But death intervened.

Bailey and Rudd Presented Outstanding Football Awards

Jake Bailey, glue-fingered end for the CHS Tigers, and Rupert Rudd, a solid 210-pound guard, were presented outstanding player awards here Saturday night.

The two gridiron stars were honored during the Circleville Booster Club's annual banquet, held at the CHS social rooms. Bailey received the Booster Club's "Most Valuable Player" award and Rudd was presented a trophy as the "Outstanding Lineman" by Circleville's Hall-Adkins American Legion Post.

Approximately 260 persons packed the social rooms to enjoy a carry-in dinner and pay tribute to the Tiger grid squad of 1960. The evening was made complete with a touching address by Dave Maurer, backfield coach at Wittenberg University in Springfield.

Bailey and Rudd, two sturdy lads at 175 and 210 pounds respectively, were vital gridiron cogs for the Tigers all season. Both played hard and worked on both offense and defense.

BAILEY shined as a top notch pass receiver and was the scourge of enemy runners on defense. Rudd played interior line positions and even fullback for a time in addition to handling most of the Tiger punting and placekicking.

Bailey snagged 15 passes during the season, good for 119 yards and two touchdowns and four extra points. The veteran flanker, the only returning starter from last year, earned 17 Tigerheads for aggressiveness which included the recovery of four fumbles.

Rudd, although he excelled as a lineman, picked up 126 yards in 21 carries during the short time he played fullback. He also set a modern school record with a 37.6 average on punts.

Both the gridirers are seniors. Their absence at CHS next season will be sorely missed.

Coach Maurer, brought here through the efforts of CHS line coach John Adler who was a top lineman at Wittenberg, delighted fans and players with his sincere talk on the inward aspects of a good football team.

He devoted much of his outstanding talk on mental poise and mental stance, two factors vital to a winning grid team. He said Wittenberg possessed these factors this season as evidenced by the team's fine 8-1 record.

MAURER cited several ingredients which lead to good mental poise and stance. He named pride, dedication, loyalty, spirit, courage and respect as the desired qualities a football player must have to be successful on the gridiron.

Additional players were honored by the Booster Club in the way of special belt buckles for meritorious performances during the season. The awards went to Garold Dade, proclaimed the outstanding offensive back; Pat Rooney for his work as outstanding defensive back; and Alex Cook for his solid play as an offensive lineman. Bailey received both a buckle and a bronze football for his rugged defensive line play and for leading the team in aggressiveness.

Coach Carl Benhase made two pleasant announcements. One was that Pat Rooney has been selected as next year's team captain and that Alex Cook was bestowed the honor as this year's captain.

Ralph Starkey, president of the Booster Club, served as toastmaster for the evening. Coach Benhase handled the introduction of players and the awards program.

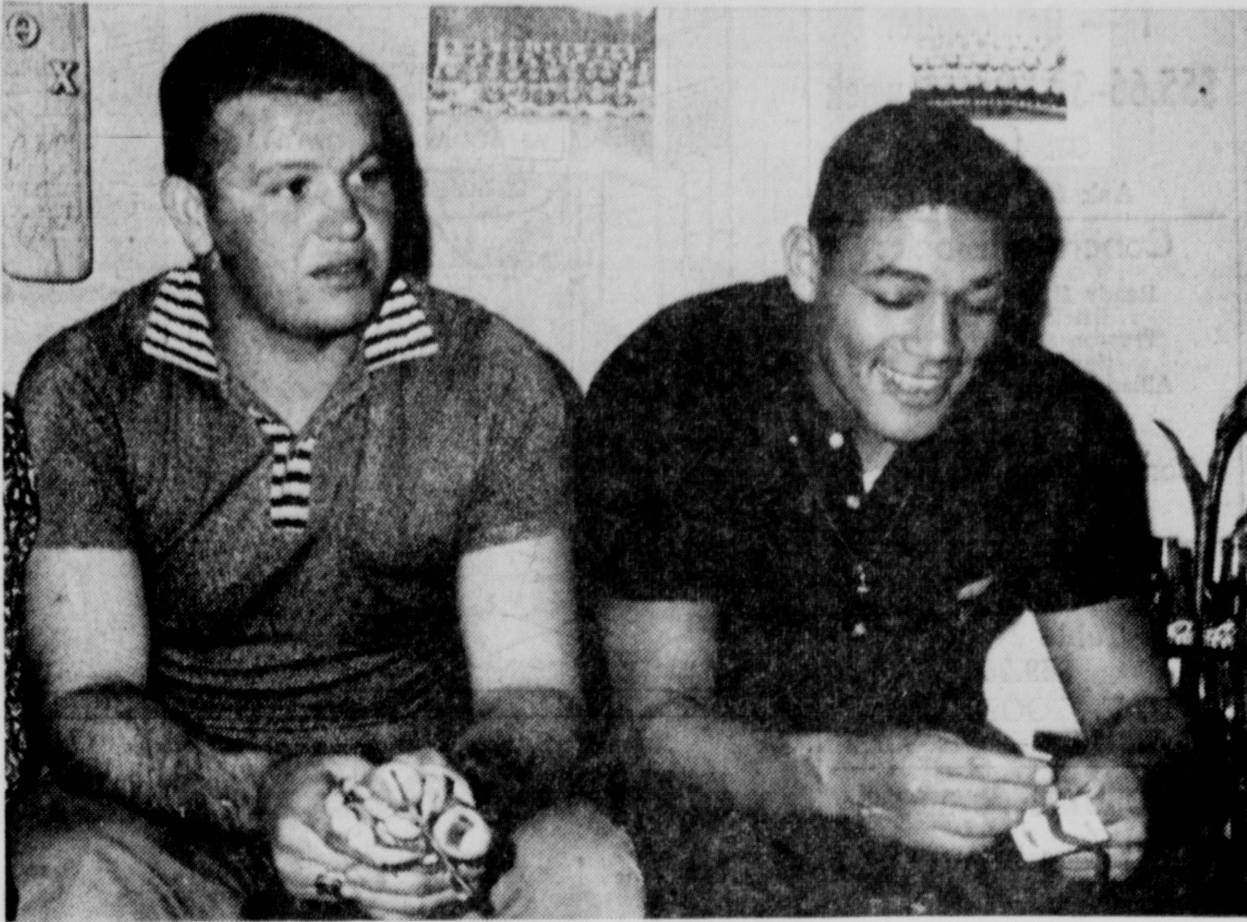

Carl Radcliff represented the American Legion on behalf of its award to Rudd. Coach Benhase and his staff expressed thanks to Hall-Adkins Post for its football support and trophy presentation.

Circleville cheerleaders were introduced by Sherry Hull who led the corps this year. Presented were Terry Trone, Mona Peters, Virginia Eccard and Bette Fraser of the varsity group and Lynn Reichelderfer, Sharon Evans, Doris Vanhouse, Carolyn Walters and Marcella Andrews of the reserve staff.

SPECIAL guests introduced were George Hartman, J. Wray Henry, Cage Coach Richard Snouffer, Faculty Manager Robert Ransom, Junior High Principal J. L. Chilcote, Wrestling Coach John Current, Paul Smallwood of The Circleville Herald, Band Master Truman Eberly and Stanley Spring team photographer.

Rev. Carl Zehner of Trinity Lutheran Church presented the Invocation and Benediction. Toastmaster Starkey presented the floral centerpiece to Mrs. Vera Butler who represented outstanding player winner Bailey.

Vernon Signed As Manager Of New Team

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington's baseball baby has been provided with guardians of broad experience in Mickey Vernon and Ed Doherty.

The signing of Vernon as field manager and Doherty as general expansion plans a boost. But the other half of the double play—a manager gave American League expansion plans a boost. But the other half of the double play—a move into Los Angeles—is still to be completed.

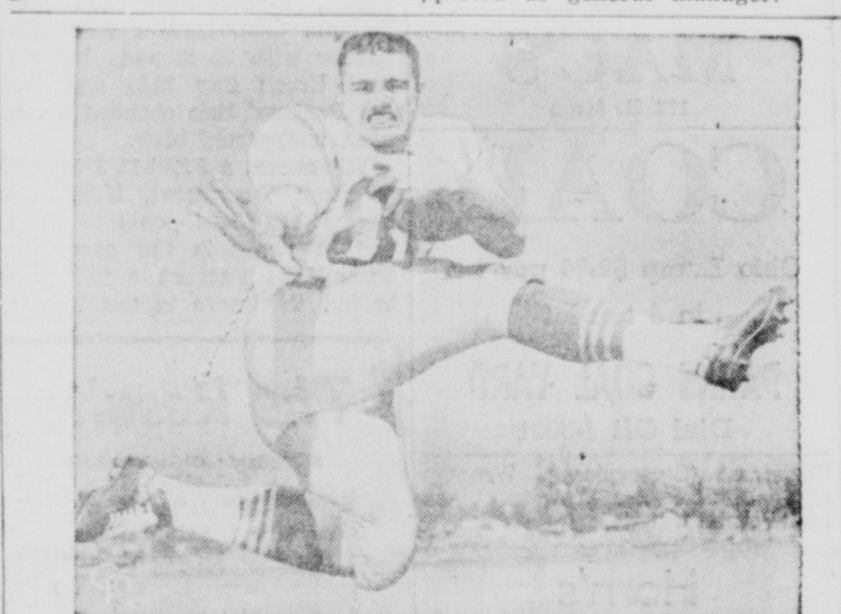

Club owners and league officials meet in New York Tuesday to award the Los Angeles franchise. They put off action last week after storm signals were raised by commissioner Ford Frick.

Frick hinted that the American League had better do business with Walter O'Malley, owner of the National League's Los Angeles Dodgers, before moving on to his lush acres. As a result, Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, is in Los Angeles to talk with O'Malley.

From a public relations standpoint, owners of the new Washington club scored heavily in their appointment of Vernon as field manager.

The lean, quiet Vernon, 42, was an idol of the fans when he won batting titles and played first base for the Washington Senators. He wanted to return to Washington and he wanted to manage a major league team. E. R. (Pete) Quesada, head of the group that obtained the franchise after the old Senators transferred to Minneapolis-St. Paul, gave him the chance.

NEVER HEARS THE CHEERS—Perhaps he won't make the All-American team, but Sammy Oates, Hardin-Simmons back, deserves such recognition. Sammy can neither speak nor hear and yet he is one of the stars of the Cowboys, being second in rushing, third in total offense, and fourth in pass receiving. Oates, 20, became a starter for Hardin-Simmons as a freshman in 1958 after graduating from the Texas School for the Deaf. He's an all-around athlete, too.

Blue Ribbon, Hunsickers, Dick's Win ONG Cage Tests

Three National Guard cage tests were held yesterday saw Blue Ribbon Dairy, Dick's Hardware and Hunsicker's Elevator roll to wins.

Blue Ribbon downed Hanley's Cafe, 51-39. Dick's Hardware barely edged Williamsport, 50-49, and Hunsicker's nosed out Walnut Twp., 64-59.

Justice with 16, Tipton 14 and Sells 12 paved the way for the Blue Ribbon victory. O'Daffer and Rooney were high for Hanley's with nine each.

Hanley's led, 31-17, at halftime but couldn't stem a Blue Ribbon surge in the final chapters.

TEDROW'S 18 points sparked the verdict by Dick's Hardware. Vincent had 19, Picklesimer 14, and Speakman 10 for Williamsport.

The contest was the closest of the day as the Hardware cagers managed to pull it out in the final seconds.

John Wardell's 17 points capped Hunsicker's effort, but he had aid on 14 tallies by Mowery, 12 by Rhoades and 11 by Ron Jame.

Walnut's battle was fired by Salisbury's 18 markers, along with 15 by Barr and 11 by Reinhold.

Hunsicker's led all the way, but never by a big margin.

League play will resume Tuesday with three more games. Starting at 7 p. m. They are Scioto Elks vs Hunsicker's, National Guard vs Orient Farmers Exchange and

VFW vs. McFarland Contractors.

THREE tilts Wednesday list Dick's Hardware vs. VFW, Williamsport vs. Scioto Elks and Hanley's vs. Walnut Twp.

Four games are on tap Sunday. They are National Guard vs. Dick's Hardware, Walnut Twp. vs. Scioto Elks, Hunsicker's vs. McFarland Contractors and Blue Ribbon vs Orient Farmers Exchange.

Vernon Signed As Manager Of New Team

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington's baseball baby has been provided with guardians of broad experience in Mickey Vernon and Ed Doherty.

The signing of Vernon as field manager and Doherty as general expansion plans a boost. But the other half of the double play—a manager gave American League expansion plans a boost. But the other half of the double play—a move into Los Angeles—is still to be completed.

Club owners and league officials meet in New York Tuesday to award the Los Angeles franchise. They put off action last week after storm signals were raised by commissioner Ford Frick.

Frick hinted that the American League had better do business with Walter O'Malley, owner of the National League's Los Angeles Dodgers, before moving on to his lush acres. As a result, Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, is in Los Angeles to talk with O'Malley.

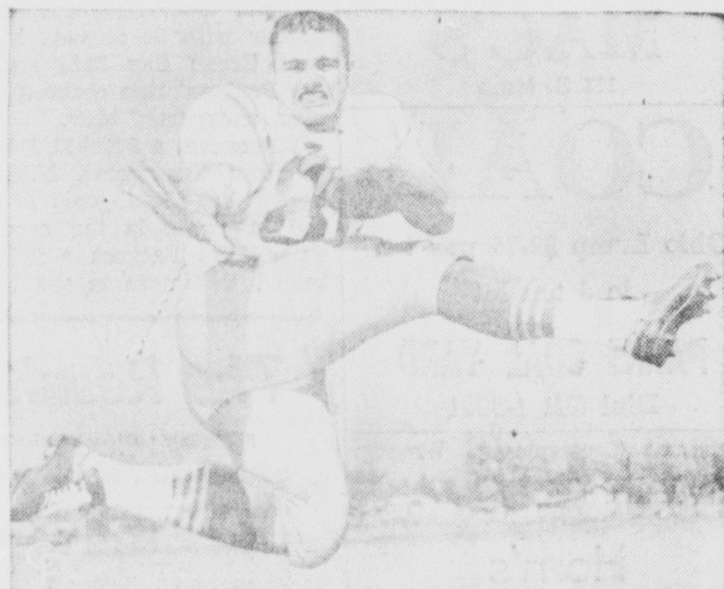

From a public relations standpoint, owners of the new Washington club scored heavily in their appointment of Vernon as field manager.

The lean, quiet Vernon, 42, was an idol of the fans when he won batting titles and played first base for the Washington Senators.

He wanted to return to Washington and he wanted to manage a major league team. E. R. (Pete) Quesada, head of the group that obtained the franchise after the old Senators transferred to Minneapolis-St. Paul, gave him the chance.

Quesada, the federal aviation administrator, announced Vernon had received a two-year contract as field manager and Doherty, president of the American Association, had signed for the same period as general manager.

NEVER HEARS THE CHEERS—Perhaps he won't make the All-American team, but Sammy Oates, Hardin-Simmons back, deserves such recognition. Sammy can neither speak nor hear and yet he is one of the stars of the Cowboys, being second in rushing, third in total offense, and fourth in pass receiving. Oates, 20, became a starter for Hardin-Simmons as a freshman in 1958 after graduating from the Texas School for the Deaf. He's an all-around athlete, too.

Blue Ribbon, Hunsickers, Dick's Win ONG Cage Tests

Three National Guard cage league games here yesterday saw Blue Ribbon Dairy, Dick's Hardware and Hunsicker's Elevator roll to wins.

Blue Ribbon downed Hanley's Cafe, 51-39. Dick's Hardware barely edged Williamsport, 50-49, and Hunsicker's nosed out Walnut Twp., 64-59.

Justice, with 16, Tipton 14 and Sells 12 paved the way for the Blue Ribbon victory. O'Daffer and Rooney were high for Hanley's with nine each.

Hanley's led, 31-17, at halftime but couldn't stem a Blue Ribbon surge in the final chapters.

TEDROW'S 18 points sparked the verdict by Dick's Hardware. Vincent had 19, Picklesimer 14, and Speakman 10 for Williamsport.

The contest was the closest of the day as the Hardware cagers managed to pull it out in the final seconds.

John Wardell's 17 points capped Hunsicker's effort, but he had aid on 14 tallies by Mowery, 12 by Rhoades and 11 by Ron Jame.

Walnut's battle was fired by Salisbury's 18 markers, along with 15 by Barr and 11 by Reinhold.

Hunsicker's led all the way, but never by a big margin.

League play will resume Tuesday with three more games. Starting at 7 p. m. They are Scioto Elks vs Hunsicker's, National Guard vs Orient Farmers Exchange and

VFW vs McFarland Contractors.

THREE tilts Wednesday list Dick's Hardware vs. VFW, Williamsport vs. Scioto Elks and Hanley's vs. Walnut Twp.

Four games are on tap Sunday. They are National Guard vs. Dick's Hardware, Walnut Twp. vs. Scioto Elks, Hunsicker's vs. McFarland Contractors and Blue Ribbon vs Orient Farmers Exchange.

Oberlin Concert Hall Is Assured by Gift

OVERLIN, Ohio (AP)—Funds for construction of a $700,000 concert hall on the Oberlin College campus will be provided by Mr. and Mrs. Seabury C. Mastick of Pleasantville, N. Y., and Sarasota, Fla.

The college said that the hall would be named for Mrs. Mastick's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lucien C. Warner. Mastick was graduated from Oberlin in 1891. Dr. Warner, a Bridgeport, Conn., manufacturer, was a trustee of the college for 52 years before his death in 1925.

Syracuse won its first soccer game of the 1959 season then dropped its remaining eight games. The Orange beat Clarkson 2-1.

In producing his grand slam of golf in 1930, Bobby Jones won the U. S. and British Opens and the U. S. and British Amateurs.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Gary Lee Cook who was killed one year ago today, November 21, 1959 age 15 years.

One sad and lonely year has passed since our great sorrow fell. The shock which we received that day, we still remember well. We mourn for you in silence, no eyes can see us weep, but many silent tears are shed while others are asleep.

More and more each day we miss you, no one can ever take your place. A love, a smile, a voice is gone, a kind and gentle face.

We often sit and think of you, and then of how you died. To think you could not say goodbye before you closed your eyes. Sometimes it's hard to understand, the things that have to be, but God in His wisdom, has a plan beyond our power to see.

Sadly missed by Mother and Father, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cook Sr., Sisters, Lois and Brenda, Brothers, Jack and Clyde Jr.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Gary Lee Cook who was killed one year ago today, November 21, 1955 age 15 years.

One sad and lonely year has passed since our great sorrow fell. The shock which we received that day, we still remember well. We mourn for you in silence, no eyes can see us weep, but many silent tears are shed while others are asleep.

More and more each day we miss you, no one can ever take your place. A love, a smile, a voice is gone, a kind and gentle face.

We often sit and think of you, and then of how you died. To think you could not say good-bye before you closed your eyes. Sometimes its hard to understand, the things that have to be, but God in his wisdom, has a plan beyond our power to see.

Sadly missed by Mother and Father, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cook Sr., Sisters, Lois and Brenda, Brothers, Jack and Clyde Jr.

Hayes Starts Building for 1961 Season

Buckeye Gridiron Boss Opens Search for QB; 20 Seniors To Depart

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's Woody Hayes, faced with the loss of 20 seniors, didn't wait long to start his rebuilding program for 1961.

The big Buckeye loss, outside of some stalwart linemen, is quarterback Tom Matte—the scintillating Cleveland youngster who gained 682 yards in 161 rushes, completed 50 of 95 passes for 737 yards and eight touchdowns, and sparkplugged the team to an unexpected 7-2 record.

Only an hour after Saturday's 7-0 climactic conquest over Michigan, Hayes had a couple of prospective replacements — freshmen Paul Warfield of Warren and Matt Snell of Long Island, N.Y., both halfbacks—going through running-passing maneuvers.

"We're looking for a 1961 quarterback," Hayes said as he took his look at the newcomers before Big Ten rules clamp down on workouts until next spring. Matte is a converted halfback (he lost four yards in five rushes as a sophomore) and Hayes hopes the changeover formula will work again.

Bulldozing Bog Ferguson, the 217-pound junior fullback from Troy, rounded out a grand-slam scoring feat by cashing the 17-yard winning touchdown against Michigan in a great fourth-quarter drive. Ferguson counted 13 touchdowns during the campaign—at least one in each game.

He piled up 853 yards rushing in 160 tries.

Matte and Ferguson were the offensive answer to the Buckeye success this year after a dismal 3-5-1 record in 1959. Hayes, fullback-quarterback offense paid off, too.

The fullbacks carried 231 times for 1,148 yards, the quarterbacks 176 times for 675, and the assorted halfbacks ran only 61 times—less than seven per game—for 271.

The Buckeye five-game attendance of 413,583 set a new record, going over 400,000 for the first time. The Michigan team, a seven-point underdog, had 17 first downs to Ohio's 9, and outgained the Bucks 218 to 168 yards—but couldn't stop Ferguson as he ate up 37 yards in four straight tries to manufacture the game's only score. It was Ohio's second shutout over the Wolverines in 23 years.

While the Bucks were winding up the season with a flourish, Ohio University nailed down the smaller college national championship with a 48-6 win over Southern Illinois, and Muskingum grabbed the Ohio Conference crown by trimming Mount Union 46-0.

Ohio University, Mid-American Conference king, registered its first 10-game unbeaten-untied season, and moved the league closer to major college recognition.

The Buckeye schools won 64, lost 39 and tied 3 in interstate play, a big advance over the 55-47 record of last year. The end of the campaign found only Ohio U. and Muskingum unbeaten, only Wilmington without a victory or tie. Western Reserve won the Presidents' Conference laurels with a 6-0 record, and the Mid-Ohio League ended in a 4-1 deadlock among Ohio Northern, Ashland and Bluffton.

Ohio State, outscored 114 to 83 last year, reversed the trend and built up a 209-90 edge this season.

Miami Provost Dies

National Football Crown Up in Air

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mad scramble for the national college football championship suddenly developed today out of the demise of Missouri, with more than a half-dozen teams remaining in the running for the coveted title.

Last week Missouri had one foot in the throne room door. The Tigers had rampaged through nine opponents and needed only to get past twice-beaten Kansas to take the crown.

But Kansas plastered the Tigers 23-7. So Mizzou finished with a 9-1 record. So did Washington.

Browns' Hopes Dimmed by Steeler Win

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, bruised by their third loss in a month of National Football League play, saw their once bright hopes of an Eastern Division title barely flickering today.

A few inches and a few seconds made the difference Sunday when the Browns lost, 14-10, at Pittsburgh in a game that was a reversal of the script for the Steelers, who have dropped four games in which they entered the final minutes with a lead.

Five seconds were left when the Browns lined up on the Steeler 10 for the last play in a drive that began on the Cleveland 24 with 2:40 remaining. Quarterback Milt Plum moved to his left and cross-fired to 6-foot-4 Leon Clarke in the end zone.

"I thought I picked it up clean with my finger tips," the end said afterward. "I guess they ruled I trapped the ball. I'll be interested to see what the movies show."

The scoreboard showed a loss for Cleveland and a 17-10 victory for the Philadelphia Eagles over the New York Giants. With four games to go, the Eagles now lead the Browns by two full games and can lose next Sunday's return match to the Giants and still stay on top.

The Browns made only 24 yards rushing in the first half against the Steelers and got their first points on a 19-yard field goal by Sam Baker in the third quarter. The kick came after a 97-yard drive bogged down with linebacker Tarasovic throwing Plum for a 10-yard loss to the Pittsburgh 12.

Iowa showed 8-1 as did Minnesota, Navy and Auburn. Mississippi, the only one of the group that has not been defeated has an 8-0-1 record with one game to go.

So nothing really can be settled until after the Mississippi-Mississippi State game Saturday.

Missouri, of course, is not out of it. The Tigers just happened to be the last of the big boys to bite the dust. Iowa was ranked No. 2 in The Associated Press poll last week behind Missouri and looked powerful in blanketing Notre Dame, 28-0.

But what of Minnesota? The Gophers whipped Wisconsin, 26-7, in their finale to tie Iowa for the Big Ten title. Further Minnesota was the only team to beat Iowa during the season.

Washington didn't enhance its reputation by barely edging Washington State, 8-7. Navy was idle, waiting for the big one against Army Saturday, while Auburn clobbered Florida State 57-21.

The bowl situation is just as confused. Five teams have been tapped officially — Washington for the Rose, Arkansas for the Cotton, Missouri for the Orange, Florida for the Gator, and Penn State for the Liberty.

The Rose Bowl appears ready to break its long tradition—with no more official contract—with the Big Ten and invited Navy if the Middles beat Army. That would leave Minnesota and Iowa, both hoping to make the westward trek, out in the cold.

Syracuse officials met Sunday night and decided to postpone any action of bowl bids. The Orange already has been invited to the Gotham Bowl in New York.

With all the speculation in the air, the major bowls could wind up like this:

Rose—Washington vs. Navy. Cotton—Arkansas vs. Oregon. Orange—Missouri vs. Duke. Sugar—Mississippi vs. Rice. Gator—Florida vs. Tennessee. Gotham—Syracuse vs. Alabama.

Liberty—Penn State vs. Tennessee.

Again, Duke won the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, but lost its final game of the season to North Carolina last Saturday, 7-6.

Only two major teams in the country managed to wind up unbeaten and untied. Yale crushed Harvard 39-6, to complete its first perfect season since 1923 with a 9-0 record. But Ivy League teams don't play postseason games.

New Mexico State won its ninth without defeat, thrashing Hardin Simmons, 40-3.

Women's Bowling Tourney Slated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The executive board of the Women's International Bowling Congress today announced the group would conduct a "Queens Championship Tournament" as a companion event of the annual WIBC tournament.

The new event, with a separate entry fee and prize list, will be run during the tournament in Fort Wayne, Ind., at the Northcrest Lanes, May 15 through May 19, 1961.

The board said the tournament will be open to all WIBC members, with a $50 entry fee, and prizes totaling $5,490. Entries close Jan. 10, 1961.

Baltimore Star Rated Top Rookie

BOSTON (AP) — Ron Hansen, wide-ranging shortstop for Baltimore's exciting "Baby Birds," and a big factor in their drive to prominence, today was named the American League's rookie of the year for 1960.

He won it hands-down, polling 22 of the 24 votes cast by a special committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

His only competition came from teammates on the youthful Orioles, first baseman Jim Gentile and pitcher Chuck Estrada. Each got one vote.

Hansen, a 22-year-old product of Oxford, Neb., provided a good portion of the glove work that brought the young Orioles into position to challenge the New York Yankees for the league title.

He had a mediocre .225 batting average, but pounded out 22 homers and drove in 82 runs in his first full year in the majors.

Lightest player on the Cleveland Browns is halfback Bobby Franklin at 180 pounds. He's from Clarksdale, Miss.

Buckeye Gridiron Boss Opens Search for QB; 20 Seniors To Depart

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's Woody Hayes, faced with the loss of 20 seniors, didn't wait long to start his rebuilding program for 1961.

The big Buckeye loss, outside of some stalwart linemen, is quarterback Tom Matte—the scintillating Cleveland youngster who gained 682 yards in 161 rushes, completed 50 of 95 passes for 737 yards and eight touchdowns, and sparkplugged the team to an unexpected 7-2 record.

Only an hour after Saturday's 7-0 climactic conquest over Michigan, Hayes had a couple of prospective replacements — freshmen Paul Warfield of Warren and Matt Snell of Long Island, N.Y., both halfbacks—going through running-passing maneuvers.

"We're looking for a 1961 quarterback," Hayes said as he took his look at the newcomers before Big Ten rules clamp down on workouts until next spring. Matte is a converted halfback (he lost four yards in five rushes as a sophomore) and Hayes hopes the changeover formula will work again.

Bulldozing Bog Ferguson, the 217-pound junior fullback from Troy, rounded out a grand-slam scoring feat by cashing the 17-yard winning touchdown against Michigan in a great fourth-quarter drive. Ferguson counted 13 touchdowns during the campaign—at least one in each game.

He piled up 853 yards rushing in 160 tries.

Matte and Ferguson were the offensive answer to the Buckeye success this year after a dismal 3-5-1 record in 1959. Hayes, fullback-quarterback offense paid off, too.

The fullbacks carried 231 times for 1,148 yards, the quarterbacks 176 times for 675, and the assorted halfbacks ran only 61 times—less than seven per game—for 271.

The Buckeye five-game attendance of 413,583 set a new record, going over 400,000 for the first time. The Michigan team, a seven-point underdog, had 17 first downs to Ohio's 9, and outgained the Bucks 218 to 168 yards — but couldn't stop Ferguson as he ate up 37 yards in four straight tries to manufacture the game's only score. It was Ohio's second shutout over the Wolverines in 23 years.

While the Bucks were winding up the season with a flourish, Ohio University nailed down the smaller college national championship with a 48-6 win over Southern Illinois, and Muskingum grabbed the Ohio Conference crown by trimming Mount Union 46-0.

Ohio University, Mid-American Conference king, registered its first 10-game unbeaten-untied season, and moved the league closer to major college recognition.

The Buckeye schools won 64, lost 39 and tied 3 in interstate play, a big advance over the 55-47 record of last year. The end of the campaign found only Ohio U. and Muskingum unbeaten, only Wilmington without a victory or tie. Western Reserve won the Presidents' Conference laurels with a 4-0 record, and the Mid-Ohio League ended in a 4-1 deadlock among Ohio Northern, Ashland and Bluffton.

Ohio State, outscored 114 to 83 last year, reversed the trend and blit up a 209-90 edge this season.

National Football Crown Up in Air

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mad scramble for the national college football championship suddenly developed today out of the demise of Missouri, with more than a half-dozen teams remaining in the running for the coveted title.

Last week Missouri had one foot in the throne room door. The Tigers had rampaged through nine opponents and needed only to get past twice-beaten Kansas to take the crown.

But Kansas plastered the Tigers 23-7. So Missouri finished with a 9-1 record. So did Washington.

Browns' Hopes Dimmed by Steeler Win

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, bruised by their third loss in a month of National Football League play, saw their once bright hopes of an Eastern Division title barely flocking today.

A few inches and a few seconds made the difference Sunday when the Browns lost, 14-10, at Pittsburgh in a game that was a reversal of the script for the Steelers, who have dropped four games in which they entered the final minutes with a lead.

Five seconds were left when the Browns lined up on the Steeler 10 for the last play in a drive that began on the Cleveland 24 with 2:40 remaining. Quarterback Milt Plum moved to his left and cross-fired to 6-foot-4 Leon Clarke in the end zone.

"I thought I picked it up clean with my finger tips," the end said afterward. "I guess they ruled I trapped the ball. I'll be interested to see what the movies show."

The scoreboard showed a loss for Cleveland and a 17-10 victory for the Philadelphia Eagles over the New York Giants. With four games to go, the Eagles now lead the Browns by two full games and can lose next Sunday's return match to the Giants and still stay on top.

The Browns made only 24 yards rushing in the first half against the Steelers and got their first points on a 19-yard field goal by Sam Baker in the third quarter. The kick came after a 97-yard drive bogged down with linebacker Tarasovic throwing Plum for a 10-yard loss to the Pittsburgh 12.

Iowa showed 8-1 as did Minnesota, Navy and Auburn. Mississippi, the only one of the group that has not been defeated has an 8-0-1 record with one game to go.

So nothing really can be settled until after the Mississippi-Mississippi State game Saturday.

Missouri, of course, is not out of it. The Tigers just happened to be the last of the big boys to bite the dust. Iowa was ranked No. 2 in The Associated Press poll last week behind Missouri and looked powerful in blanketing Notre Dame, 28-0.

But what of Minnesota? The Gophers whipped Wisconsin, 26-7, in their finale to tie Iowa for the Big Ten title. Further Minnesota was the only team to beat Iowa during the season.

Washington didn't enhance its reputation by barely edging Washington State, 8-7. Navy was idle, waiting for the big one against Army Saturday, while Auburn clobbered Florida State 57-21.

The bowl situation is just as confused. Five teams have been tapped officially — Washington for the Rose, Arkansas for the Cotton, Missouri for the Orange, Florida for the Gator, and Penn State for the Liberty.

The Rose Bowl appears ready to break its long tradition—there is no more official contract—with the Big Ten and invited Navy if the Middles beat Army. That would leave Minnesota and Iowa, both hoping to make the westward trek, out in the cold.

Syracuse officials met Sunday night and decided to postpone any action of bowl bids. The Orange already has been invited to the Gotham Bowl in New York.

With all the speculation in the air, the major bowls could wind up like this:

Rose—Washington vs. Navy. Cotton—Arkansas vs. Oregon. Orange—Missouri vs. Duke. Sugar—Mississippi vs. Rice. Gator—Florida vs. Tennessee. Gotham—Syracuse vs. Alabama.

Liberty—Penn State vs. Tennessee.

Again, Duke won the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, but lost its final game of the season to North Carolina last Saturday, 7-6.

Only two major teams in the country managed to wind up unbeaten and untied. Yale crushed Harvard 39-6, to complete its first perfect season since 1923 with a 9-0 record. But Ivy League teams don't play postseason games.

New Mexico State won its ninth without defeat, thrashing Hardin-Simmons, 40-3.

Women's Bowling Tourney Slated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The executive board of the Women's International Bowling Congress today announced the group would conduct a "Queens Championship Tournament" as a companion event of the annual WIBC tournament.

The new event, with a separate entry fee and prize list, will be run during the tournament in Fort Wayne, Ind., at the Northcrest Lanes, May 15 through May 19, 1961.

The board said the tournament will be open to all WIBC members, with a $50 entry fee, and prizes totaling $5,490. Entries close Jan. 10, 1961.

Baltimore Star Rated Top Rookie

BOSTON (AP) — Ron Hansen, wide-ranging shortstop for Baltimore's exciting "Baby Birds," and a big factor in their drive to prominence, today was named the American League's rookie of the year for 1960.

He won it hands-down, polling 22 of the 24 votes cast by a special committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

His only competition came from teammates on the youthful Orioles, first baseman Jim Gentile and pitcher Chuck Estrada. Each got one vote.

Hansen, a 22-year-old product of Oxford, Neb., provided a good portion of the glove work that brought the young Orioles into position to challenge the New York Yankees for the league title.

He had a mediocre .225 batting average, but pounded out 22 homers and drove in 82 runs in his first full year in the majors.

Lightest player on the Cleveland Browns is halfback Bobby Franklin at 180 pounds. He's from Clarksdale, Miss.

Western Europe Can Rock U.S. Finances at Any Time

Editor's Note—President Eisenhower last week ordered emergency action to stem the steady flow of American gold into foreign hands. Frank Cormier, experienced AP Treasury Department reporter and financial writer, assesses the scope of the problem in the first of three articles on the gold situation.

By FRANK CORMIER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The nations of Western Europe now have it in their power to rock the American financial system any day in the week.

All that stands between crisis and stability is an intangible called "confidence"—confidence that the U.S. dollar will remain "as good as gold."

Foreign governments and their citizens own about $18 billion of Uncle Sam's money. Most of these dollars are owned by Western Europeans and are deposited or invested in the United States. Theoretically, all could be used to buy American gold.

If all were used for this purpose, Uncle Sam's supply of bullion would be wiped out. There is only $18 billion of gold in the government's coffers.

Such a disaster is virtually impossible.

For one thing, foreigners do so much business with the United States that they couldn't afford to exchange all their dollars for gold.

Furthermore, to do so would wreck their own finances because the United States is the cornerstone of the free world economy.

This doesn't mean, however, that the current anxiety over Uncle Sam's persistent loss of gold is misplaced. The simple fact is that foreigners could cause a major crisis merely by exchanging a relatively small proportion of their dollars for gold in the span of a few days.

If foreigners bought $1 billion of U.S. gold in a single week, this would be taken as a vote of "no confidence" in the dollar. Perhaps even a lesser amount would turn the tide.

It is this possibility which last week prompted President Eisenhower to impose unprecedented restrictions on spending abroad under the military and foreign aid programs. His aim was to lessen the number of dollars moving into foreign hands; dollars that could be used to buy American gold.

Since July 1, foreigners have been buying American gold at the rate of $3.8 billion a year. Since Aug. 1, they have been ordering at an annual pace of $4.1 billion. Since Sept. 1, the rate has risen to $4.7 billion. Since Oct. 1, the flow of bullion has hit a spectacular annual rate of $5.9 billion.

Compare this buying with the remaining U.S. gold supply: $18 billion of which $11.5 billion must, by law, remain in government hands as backing for part of the money supply.

Some believe the President's actions were too severe—that the cure will hurt more than the disease. However, the fact that such action was taken by a "lame duck" administration suggests the urgency with which the problem is viewed by Eisenhower and his secretary of the Treasury, Robert B. Anderson.

Why couldn't they have waited nine more weeks for the inauguration of President-elect John F. Kennedy?

Some speculate that the actions were taken now because Eisenhower felt they would be necessary soon and feared a new administration might be reluctant to take potentially unpopular measures.

This was denied by an official who took part in the meeting at which Eisenhower made his decision. This man said there was only one reason for acting now: Inauguration Day might be too late.

Tomato Packer Plans New Plants Abroad

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Campbell Soup Co. has announced plans for construction of food processing plants in Australia and Mexico.

It also announced at its stockholders' meeting Friday development of a new mushroom strain and intentions to increase mechanical harvesting of tomatoes while cutting use of migrant labor for this chore.

W. B. Murphy, Campbell president, said Campbell is "head over heels" in mechanical harvesting of tomatoes since labor is the largest single factor in the cost of tomatoes. "Migrant labor may well disappear in the future and this is not a unwelcome development because it is a part of our labor force that we are not too happy about."

He said the main trouble in mechanical harvesting is development of tomato plants suitable for such handling. "We believe it will come before too long," he said.

Campbell said its new mushroom, known as 70-2, will be made available to the industry. Murphy said it is characterized by higher yields per acre, larger size, improved flavor and a quicker maturity, enabling more crop's per year.

WHY DID MARILYN LEAVE ARTHUR?—Gossips from New York's Broadway to Hollywood's corner of Sunset and Vine are asking what broke up the marriage of actress Marilyn Monroe, 34, and playwright Arthur Miller, 45. She announced in New York that she will divorce Miller, her husband of four years. In Paris it was denied that there was any fresh romance between Miss Monroe and Yves Montand (right), her co-star in the film, "Let's Make Love."

U.S. Medicine To Assist Alien Medics

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Medical Association has agreed to help about 2,500 foreign doctors who face deportation because they failed to pass exams qualifying them to study in this country.

The State Department asked the AMA Friday to solve the doctors' plight because the department has received "numerous expressions of concern over the foreign relations effect" of the failures.

A statement was issued after a two-hour closed meeting with the leaders of five medical organizations concerned with the medical training of foreign doctors. The AMA said it might be 10 days before it comes up with a plan.

But one professional source reported the program would call for a six-month extension of the foreign doctors' student visas which would enable them to brush up on their studies and presumably take another examination.

During this period they would not be employed as internes, residents or house physicians as most of them were before the test. Hospitals to which they have been attached would be asked to try to employ them in other capacities, such as laboratory aides.

Foreign doctors, to take part in the exchange - visitor program, must pass the examination required by the educational council for foreign medical graduates. Each student enters this country under the sponsorship of a particular hospital. If the student loses that connection, for any reason, he loses his visa status unless he can transfer to some other exchange-visitor program.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says total assets of the nation's farmers increased last year to a new record high of $203.6 billion.

"Migrant labor may well disappear in the future and this is not a unwelcome development because it is a part of our labor force that we are not too happy about."

He said the main trouble in mechanical harvesting is development of tomato plants suitable for such handling. "We believe it will come before too long," he said.

WHY DID MARILYN LEAVE ARTHUR?—Gossips from New York's Broadway to Hollywood's corner of Sunset and Vine are asking what broke up the marriage of actress Marilyn Monroe, 34, and playwright Arthur Miller, 45. She announced in New York that she will divorce Miller, her husband of four years. In Paris it was denied that there was any fresh romance between Miss Monroe and Yves Montand (right), her co-star in the film, "Let's Make Love."

U.S. Medicine To Assist Alien Medics

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Medical Association has agreed to help about 2,500 foreign doctors who face deportation because they failed to pass exams qualifying them to study in this country.

The State Department asked the AMA Friday to solve the doctors' plight because the department has received "numerous expressions of concern over the foreign relations effect" of the failures.

A statement was issued after a two-hour closed meeting with the leaders of five medical organizations concerned with the medical training of foreign doctors. The AMA said it might be 10 days before it comes up with a plan.

But one professional source reported the program probably would call for a six-month extension of the foreign doctors' student visas which would enable them to brush up on their studies and presumably take another examination.

During this period they would not be employed as internes, residents or house physicians as most of them were before the test. Hospitals to which they have been attached would be asked to try to employ them in other capacities, such as laboratory aides.

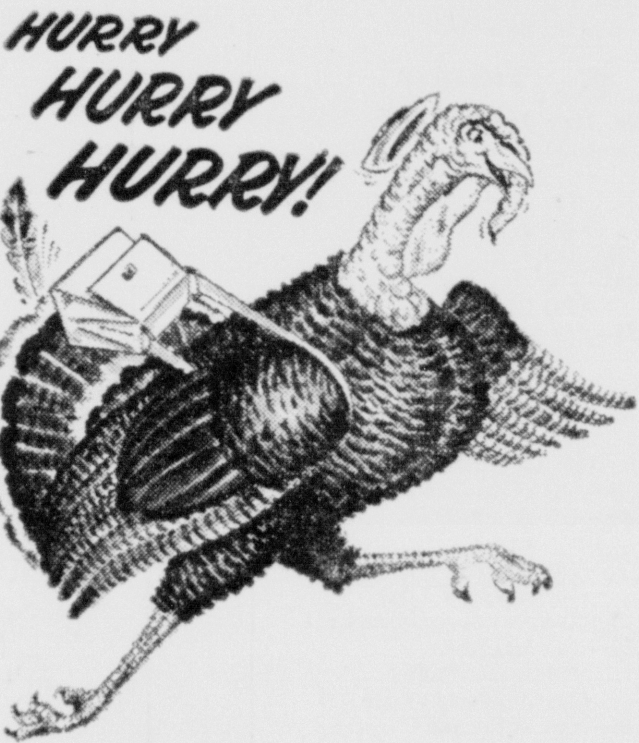

Foreign doctors, to take part in the exchange - visitor program, must pass the examination required by the educational council for foreign medical graduates. Each student enters this country under the sponsorship of a particular hospital. If the student loses that connection, for any reason, he loses his visa status unless he can transfer to some other exchange-visitor program.
